Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We invite you to enrich your life through joining our parish family. In addition to our liturgies there are many ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact our Director of Catechetical Ministry, Lissa Hutcherson, at (619) 466-5656. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079. You can also contact them by using the "Contact us" link at olg-church.org.

Allergies

The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will almost always include the use of incense.

Mindfulness of Others

Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. And, follow the California Department of Health guidance for use of face masks.

Mass readings:

Is: 43:16-21

Phil 3:8-14

Jn 8:1-11

GROW: During Lent, we hear familiar stories: the event of Jesus’ transfiguration, the prodigal son, and today the woman caught in adultery. Each reveals an aspect of God’s perfect love for us and a glimpse of how we can reflect that love toward others. In today’s Gospel, the Pharisees once again are testing Jesus, saying the law demands that the woman caught in adultery be stoned. Jesus responds, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” What a perfect response to the Pharisees, and to each one of us when we focus on the faults of another. Jesus’ words teach and challenge us to look more closely at the ways we judge others – by appearance, a social media post, political party, for example – and ask ourselves whether we are truly doing so out of love. Closer to home, we may be quick to point out our spouse or children’s perceived faults, without acknowledging our own. Jesus invites us to look at others – and ourselves – with the eyes of mercy.

GO: Every time we go out to dinner, my son makes fun of me for agonizing over the menu: “You always regret what you pick!” Indeed, regret can be a powerful emotion. Fortunately, the dinner dilemma requires only that I mooch off of my son’s entrée. However, deeper regrets can bog us down and prevent us from moving forward in faith. Today’s readings challenge us not to wallow in past mistakes, preconceptions, or bad habits. As we hear in Isaiah, “The things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new!” We hear this idea again from St. Paul, who writes of “forgetting what lies behind” and straining forward toward “the prize of God’s upward calling, in Christ Jesus.” In the Gospel, Jesus doesn’t dwell on the past sins of the adulterous woman other than to say, “Go, and from now on do not sin any more.” Fortunately, our Church offers an antidote to regret and sin in the sacrament of reconciliation. Whether it’s been a month or a decade, what better time than Lent to return to this sacrament and experience God’s mercy and forgiveness?

ACT: Take advantage of the additional opportunities many churches offer for the sacrament of reconciliation during Lent. Rusty? Check out this excellent guide for adults and children: tinyurl.com/axahh43z.

FROM the PASTOR

VERY REV. PETER M. MCGUINE

Dear Parishioners,

On Mar 26, nearly 110 people gathered for our parish consultation as part of Pope Francis' Synod on Synodality. It was a beautiful morning. The Holy Spirit filled the room and the hearts of all who participated as we broke into small groups to share our greatest disappointments, joys and hopes with and for the Church.

Special thanks to our local coordinator, Anna Marie Picconi Snyder, who orchestrated the gathering from beginning to end. In the front office, Georgene Kruzell handled communications and registrations. On the day of the event, dedicated facilitators and note takers made the small group discussions come alive. A word of appreciation to the ladies of the CWC for providing refreshments, to Ken Discenza for technical and logistical support, to our maintenance team for facility set up, to Daniel Mendoza for musical support, and to Deacon John Sawaya who was present to all groups as needed. Most of all, thanks to all who gave of their time and participated in this very special morning. It could not have happened without you!

Lenten blessings,

"Celebrating a Synod means walking on the same road, walking together."
