We love having you as part of our flock! Get updates about Masses and parish life via email or text! Sign up! Visit olg-church.org and look for the blue and white sheep.

Public Mass Update

Masses are celebrated outside in front of the church. Bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on. Face coverings are required, as is physical distancing. Bottled water, hats, hand sanitizer, and sunscreen are recommended. Our Ambassadors will be present to assist you. For more info, visit olg-church.org and read the red NOTICE under the Weekly Liturgy Schedule headline.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays continues to be dispensed by Bishop McElroy.

Masses are being Streamed Online

On the parish website we have listed multiple links to options to participate in Sunday and daily Mass online in the Diocese of San Diego and beyond. Visit olg-church.org homepage and click on the gold "Online Mass Info and Other Sustaining Faith Resources in the Time of Pandemic" button. Scroll to listed Mass links.

Good news!

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will often include the use of incense.

Invitation to the R.C.I.A.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the R.C.I.A. process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. Please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish webpage.

Introducing Grow+Go

This week, we are introducing Grow+Go, content designed to help you understand what it means to be an evangelizing disciple of Christ. Using the Sunday Scriptures as the basis for reflection, Grow+Go offers insight into how we can all more fully GROW as disciples and then GO evangelize, fulfilling Christ's Great Commission to "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." (Matthew 28:19) The concept behind the weekly series is to make discipleship and evangelization simple, concrete and relatable. Let us know if you like this new feature!

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mass Readings:

Is 56:1, 6-7

Rom 11:13-15, 29-32

Mt 15:21-28

GROW: Talk about chutzpah! For the Canaanite woman, it took courage and audacity to persist after first the disciples, and then, by all appearances, Jesus, tried to turn her away. As a pagan woman, she was clearly an outsider. Yet she didn't let these obstacles stop her from seeking the Lord's help. Jesus recognized her great faith and healed her daughter. Her boldness can be a model for us. Has prayer become routine or even an after-thought amid the activities that pull us in so many directions? Do we feel our concerns are too petty or insignificant? Do we wonder whether God really cares about us? At times like this, we can take our cue from this Canaanite woman of faith and echo her words: "Lord, help me." Jesus hears us.

GO: I have to admit that grace before meals is sometimes a rushed affair at our house. "Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts, which we are about to receive has been known to turn into ... we are receiving." And at Mass, after the lector has done a beautiful job sharing the universal prayers, I think to myself, was I fully listening? Yes, it's true, the Lord knows our needs and knows what is in our hearts. But next time we say grace, let's think about how truly blessed we are to have bountiful food on our table, and next time we say: "Lord, hear our prayer" during the Prayers of the Faithful at Mass, let's remember the Canaanite woman and pray with more passion and boldness – and most of all, with more faith.

STUDY: When describing the power of faith, the Catechism of the Catholic Church singles out an unlikely example. It's not Peter, Paul or the early disciples, but the Canaanite woman, an outsider in her time. "Jesus is as saddened by the 'lack of faith' of his own neighbors and the 'little faith' of his own disciples as he is struck with admiration at the great faith of the Roman centurion and the Canaanite woman." (2610) For a refresher on what "great faith" looks like, read sections 2609-11 in the catechism. You'll find some gems and inspiration there!

Farewell to Marc Gandolfo

Visiting seminarian, Marc Gandolfo, leaves OLG on Mon, Aug 17 to return to his studies at Mt. Angel Seminary in Oregon. We enjoyed sharing our unusual “pandemic” parish life during his visit and service to us.

Best wishes and prayerful hope, Marc, as you continue preparations for the priesthood! Safe travel and God be with you till we meet again!

A Little Humor

A first grade school teacher presented each child in her classroom the first half of a well-known proverb and asked them to come up with the remainder of the proverb. Here are the results:

- Don't change horses... until they stop running!
- Strike while the... bug is close.
- It's always darkest before... Daylight Saving Time.
- Never underestimate the power of... termites.
- You can lead a horse to water but... how?
- Don't bite the hand that... looks dirty.
- No news is... impossible.
- A miss is as good as a... Mr.
- You can't teach an old dog new... math.
- If you lie down with dogs you'll... stink in the morning.
- Love all, trust... me.
- The pen is mightier than the... pig.
- An idle mind is... the best way to relax.
- Where there is smoke there's... pollution.
- Happy the bride who... gets all the presents.
- A penny saved is... not much.
- Two's company, three's... the Musketeers.
- There are none so blind as... Stevie Wonder.
- Children should be seen and not... spanked or grounded.
- If at first you don't succeed... get new batteries.
- When the blind lead the blind... get out of the way.
- A bird in the hand is... going to poop on you.

- A Catechist was teaching about creation. “Now children,” she said, “Who can tell us what makes the flower spring from the seed?” “God does it,” answered one little girl, “but fertilizer helps!
- Two mushrooms were walking downtown in the entertainment district on a Saturday night. One mushroom said to the other mushroom, “Here it is Saturday Night and I can't figure out why I don't have a date. After all, I'm a real fungi!

Catholic Women's Club “Bread Sunday” is Back!

The ladies of the CWC are baking bread again but on a limited basis. Bread will be available Sun, Aug 30 after the 8:00 and 11:00 am Masses by pre-order. The order form is available online at olg-church.org under Quick Links/Upcoming Events or on the info table in the church vestibule. Choose Cranberry Walnut and/or Quinoa bread for just $7.00 per loaf, payable at pick up. Your order must be received in the parish office by noon on Thu, Aug 27. If your mouth is watering for the taste of CWC bread then place your order right away! Questions? Call the parish office for a contact number.

Blood Drive Thanks and Update

Sincere thanks to all those involved in our Aug 9 Blood Drive. We collected 32 pints of desperately needed blood! We are Here to Help!

Walking with Purpose is a Bible study here at OLG for women of all ages (20-70+ years), all stages of life, and all levels of faith. The studies include practical bible teachings consistent with Church doctrine.

During this time of sheltering in place members are taking a break from meetings but they are not taking a break from ministry. The women of Walking with Purpose want you to know they are here for you!

Do you feel lonely? Members will call you for a chat. Is it difficult to get groceries? Members will shop for you. Do you need prayers? Members will pray with you!

Visit olg-church.org/serve/ministries/walking-purpose or call the parish office for contact info to request support or join this ministry.

“God inspired in the heart of the pure Virgin Mary His own intense love for humility... It was this humility which attracted to her the countless graces which rendered her worthy to be the Mother of God, Queen of heaven and earth.

Prayers for a New School Year

Prayer for Students

Lord our God, in your wisdom and love you surround us with the mysteries of the universe. Send your Spirit upon these students and fill them with your wisdom and blessings. Grant that they may devote themselves to their studies and draw ever closer to you, the source of all knowledge. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Teachers

Lord God, your spirit of wisdom fills the earth and teaches us your ways. Look upon these teachers. Let them strive to share their knowledge with gentle patience and endeavor always to bring the truth to eager minds. Grant that they may follow Jesus Christ, the way, the truth, and the life, forever and ever. Amen.

St. Bernard

1090-1153

Feast Day – Aug 20

Known as Bernard of Clairvaux, this French abbot and doctor of the church is considered the second founder of the Cistercians. He entered the relatively new monastery at Citeaux in 1113 with four of his own brothers and 27 friends, and later founded the monastery at Clairvaux, which gave birth to 68 other communities. Despite poor health and his devotion to personal mortification, Bernard was an early Western European rock star: He was consulted by popes and kings, battled heresies, and supported the Second Crusade. The sick and maimed lined the roads he traveled, hoping for a miracle. Dante chose Bernard as his final guide in “Paradiso,” at the end of “The Divine Comedy.” He is the patron of Gi-

“The man who is wise, therefore, will see his life as more like a reservoir than a canal. The canal simultaneously pours out what it receives; the reservoir retains the water till it is filled, then discharges the overflow without loss to itself ... Today there are many in the Church who act like canals, the reservoirs are far too rare ... You too must learn to await this fullness before pouring out your gifts, do not try to be more generous than God.”
