Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We invite you to enrich your life through joining our parish family. In addition to our liturgies there are many ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact our Director of Catechetical Ministry, Lissa Hutcheson, at (619) 466-5656. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079. You can also contact them by using the "Contact us" link at olg-church.org.

Allergies

The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will almost always include the use of incense.

Mindfulness of Others

Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy.

FOOD AND FELLOWSHIP IN THE PARISH CENTER

All are welcome Sunday mornings after Mass.

Dec 12 School Sunday

Sponsored by OLG School families
Complimentary coffee and refreshments. Contributions not necessary but gratefully accepted. Proceeds benefit OLG's Tuition Assistance Fund, the Gerard Family Endowment for Catholic Education.

Dec 19 Wheel Chair Sunday

Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Frances Cabrini Council 8879
Complimentary coffee and donuts. Donations gratefully accepted. Proceeds provide wheelchairs for those in need.

Dec 26 Merry Christmas!

Food and Fellowship will return on Jan 2!

The Parish Events Committee thanks all the volunteers and contributors who made our Dec 4 "We Need A Little Christmas" luncheon a grand success! The food, decorations, music and fun filled the Parish Center with community spirit. Keep watch for info about our next parish-wide event!

Third Sunday of Advent

Mass readings:

Zep 3:14-18a

Phil 4:4-7

Lk 3:10-18

GO: Although spontaneous outbursts of joy are not part of our liturgy, today's readings alert us that we have much reason to rejoice. Even in times of anxiety, we can rely on the words of St. Paul, who writes that we can rest assured that "the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard [our] hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." As we prepare for his coming during this Advent season, we don't need to leap out of our pews and make a show of our praise (but go for it, if that's your style!). However, in our hearts and in our prayer, we can follow the psalmist's lead and "cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel." We can praise God in many ways, through fervent prayer, simple acts of kindness and, as John the Baptist did so well, sharing the Good News.

GROW: "What should we do?" The crowds asked John the Baptist a deceptively simple question many of us wrestle with today. How do we prepare for Christ's coming? How should we spend the next hour, the day, the next year, the next five? John the Baptist answers without reservation: Share what you have. Don't be greedy. Do not falsely accuse others. In other words, get it together! The Lord is coming. Advent is a wonderful time to do just that, and St. Paul reminds us that we don't have to know all the answers. "The Lord is near," he writes, "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." Last week, the readings encouraged us to discern what is truly valuable in our lives as Christians. Today's readings encourage us to ask the Lord: "What should we do?" Just as John the Baptist showed the people how to prepare for Christ's coming, the Lord shows us how to live out and share our faith through the Scriptures and in the silence of prayer.

ACTIONS: Remember the last time you felt unadulterated joy? For me it was when my son smacked a game-winning goal at a hockey game. As we move through Advent, we can reawaken a sense of child-like joy as we prepare to celebrate Christ among us. As you light the Advent candle, take time to share with one another something that gave you joy within the past week.

What is the Mass?Do You Really Know the Answer?*The Secret to Understanding the Eucharist.

Has the Mass become so routine to you that you have lost sense of what it is? Of what is actually going on? Time stops. Heaven and Earth are united. The Sacrifice of Calvary is represented. Fr. Hugh Barbour, O.Praem, chaplain of Catholic Answers and former Prior of St. Michael's Abbey, will rekindle—or ignite for the first time—your love of the Mass by giving you the key to understanding it. Gather on Fri, Dec 17, at St. Therese of Carmel, 4355 Del Mar Trails Rd, SD, 92130 for wine and cheese at 6:30 pm followed by the lecture at 7:00.

On the cover and more: The OLG Prayer Quilt Ministry fulfills requests to make quilts for those in need, especially for those in need of healing. The quilts are blessed at Mass and then are available outside the doors of the church for parishioners to tie the quilt knots and pray for the individual who will receive the quilt. The quilt is then given to the requester to be delivered.

This ministry is best described through these words included in the quilt blessing... "Make our hearts reach out to those who call upon our prayers and support. And may the fabric of Faith, the threads of Hope, and the hands of Love You have blessed us with, in turn, bless those who receive these prayer quilts..."

To learn more, help with making these quilts or to request a prayer quilt for someone in need visit olg-church.org/parish-ministries, then scroll to Service Ministries and click on Prayer Quilts.
