ANALISA ROSE MORALES

The Parish Offices will be closed on Dec 25 and Jan 1.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or feast day will always be incense-free.

Invitation to the RCIA

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the RCIA process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. For more information, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or jsawaya@olg-church.org.

GUEST COLUMNIST

ALICE CAMILLE

The Ark of Life

I once saw a sculpture of this scene from Luke titled The Visitation. It showed Mary and Elizabeth, two hugely pregnant women, cradling each other and their blossoming wombs in a round ark of possibility. You could almost see these women floating on the ocean of God's promises, buoyant with joy and hope. Just observing the two of them in their dance of trust was uplifting, even from the distance of two millennia. We sinners would be saved from the wreckage of our choices because this sure ark of life would carry us away from the destruction we created!

When you think about it, these women must have been just a little crazy. One was way too old to be contemplating maternity, and the other was too dangerously unwed to be carrying a child in a culture that stoned women for far less. Two women in the same family, from a distance of miles and generations, daring to do something so strange and risky as to be, well, inconceivable in every sense of the word. And yet they conceived, by the will of God as they believed, and they bore these fresh new lives to fulfillment despite all the odds.

Just the idea of the Visitation makes you shiver. It's so subversive of social mores, the natural order, and the network of original sin. It's so delightfully original in its own way that only God, the author of all things, could have come up with it.

And the thing is, no one suspected it. It happened right under the nose of the great Roman empire, the religious caste of Jerusalem, and the devil himself. An old lady and a teenage girl undid the whole fabric of the corrupted world while no one was looking. Who would have imagined it could happen this way?

R-E-S-P-E-C-T

When we see pregnant women everywhere, massaging their sore ankles on street corners, taking off their shoes on buses, pushing the carriage with the last one in it while the first one is tugging at her side and the next one is kicking her inside, we ought to pause for a moment of sincere respect. These women carry worlds within them, every possibility for the future and every hope of humanity. From their sacrificial offering of their whole selves will come every house built, every life medically saved, every student taught and every teacher instructing. From them come our artists, inventors, explorers, and farmers. From them also comes the church with its priests, prophets, missionaries, and saints. Mothers are the ark of life, and Noah with his one-time zoo had nothing on the contribution of mothers throughout history.

The power of mothers is more imposing than that of any president, and they are the best examples of Christianity short of Jesus himself. Jesus said there is no greater love than to lay down your life for another. Can there be a more perfect rendering of that sacrifice than what a mother does when she says yes to that second heart beating within her?

Christ-bearers all

Of course, not all of us are or can be mothers: half of us because of gender and a good many more because of our circumstances, choices, or biology. This in no way leaves us out of the mission to be guardians of life. Some of us are called to parenting, and the rest of us are not excused from the business of serving and speaking out on behalf of the most vulnerable. As Catholics, we do that politically in our defense of the preborn, the dying, the person condemned to death, and the enemy of our country especially in times of war. Our work for the poor, oppressed, and disempowered is also part of our stewardship of life.

But we take our place within the ark of life when we bear Christ into the world more personally as well. We, too, believe that what has been spoken to us by the Lord will be fulfilled, and we give witness to that in every gentle exchange with a fellow human being, each consumer choice that affects the planet, the example of our words and actions, and most of all by our compassion. If we bring Christ to others, it is his compassion for sinners that must be revealed. We do this in our lack of judging others, our willingness to forgive, our faith that people can

END OF YEAR STOCK AND/OR IRA DONATION INFO

Stock Donations

A gift of your securities, including stocks or mutual funds, is an easy way to make a gift. By making a gift of your appreciated securities, you can avoid paying capital gains tax that would otherwise be due if you sold these assets. Contributions are deductible for tax purposes. There are no transaction fees or other costs and the full value of the sold securities benefits the parish, school or other Catholic charity you select.

More importantly, the question you may want to consider is this: Have I been blessed with many gifts and am I inspired by Gospel teaching and my Catholic values that charitable giving is a profound and joy-inspiring expression of love and gratitude? How can I live out my Catholic values and put them into action for the greater good of the community? Your stock contribution will help you live out your Catholic values and benefit your parish or school at the same time.

For more information on making a gift please visit our diocesan website at www.sdcatholic.org and click on Giving – Stock Donations at the top of the website. Or, you may contact the Office for Stewardship, Manny Aguilar, at (858) 490-8294 or call Daniel Pritchard at Merrill Lynch, the Diocese's broker, at (760) 930-3122.

IRA Required Minimum Distributions

As scripture reads, "Jesus said, Give and it will be given to you...For the measure you give will be in turn, the measure that you get back." After years of contributing to tax-deferred IRAs and 401(k)s, income tax is due on that money when a person withdraws it in retirement. Annual withdrawals from traditional retirement accounts are required after age 70½. But, IRA owners that are 70½ or older may make charitable contributions of up to $100,000 per year directly to an eligible charity (e.g., Catholic Parish, School, Foundation, etc.) without paying income tax on the transaction. If you file a joint return, your spouse may also make a charitable contribution of up to $100,000, meaning couples can exclude up to $200,000 of their retirement savings from income tax if they donate it to a charity. Qualified charitable contributions must be made by December 31 each year in order to exclude that amount from income.

Charitable contributions can only be made from IRAs, not 401(k)s or similar types of retirement accounts. Donors might need to roll funds over from a 401(k) to an IRA if they want to make tax-free charitable contributions part of their retirement plan. A donor doesn't need to itemize their taxes in order to make an IRA charitable distribution. Donors should consult with their personal tax advisors on the donations and the tax implications. Donors may make these donations directly to the parish, school or ministry of their choice or they may make it through the Diocese of San Diego at no additional cost.

change, our tenderness for the lonely, lost, hurting souls all around us. Mary and Elizabeth participated in the divine plan to present Christ to the world for the sake of sinners. If we don't practice loving sinners with the same lavish openness, we have no place else to bring our Christ.

Behold, I come to do your will

Jesus perfectly realized the will of God, the writer of the Letter to the Hebrews tells us. He did it not by offering absolute service to the law but by becoming the instrument of God's purposes. We spend a lot of time trying to conform ourselves to laws both civil and moral, and that's certainly not bad. But it falls far short of the full surrender that Mary and Elizabeth gave so readily in love. And in the mind of one sculptor at least, they did it dancing, their bellies full of life, their hearts confident of what was promised. Sometimes we imagine surrender as a kind of enslavement, handing our will over to be impounded by a greater power. But between those who love, surrender leads to greater freedom and higher possibility. Within the fertile environment of God's will, our lives become richer with potential than we ever dreamed of, as the leaden burden of sin is lifted. And all of this is good news, not to mention a wonderful surprise. After all, who would suspect that buoyant new life would come from the likes of you and me?
