Invitation to the R.C.I.A.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." To learn more please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish webpage.

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will always include the use of incense.

GUEST COLUMNIST

ALICE CAMILLE

Do You Love the Law?

Few of us love the law. In a country that sometimes views government with hostility and authority with suspicion, our reflexive stance toward rules is to shred first, reconsider later. Maybe. Many of us don't even read the operating instructions on what we buy, though our personal safety may be compromised: Just plug it in, hit the ON button, and hope for the best!

When we live this way—start it up and full speed ahead, without considering the rules of the road—it can lead to trouble, even mortal peril. Though we often regard laws as barbed wire designed to entrap our freedom, they might also be viewed as the means to secure our liberty. If any idiot on the road could do as he or she pleases, travel would be open only to those who value their lives and the lives of others quite lightly.

To a society like ours, the community proposed in early Hebrew writings is impossible to imagine. These people were into law. In Psalm 119, the famous love song to the law which is also the longest chapter in the Bible, no fewer than eight synonyms for torah are used: word, law, commandment, rule, decree, precept, teaching, and way. Interestingly, though, the psalm is not concerned with the regulations that comprise much of the Pentateuch, nor does it mention the commandments at Sinai or the person of Moses. Law, this post-exilic psalm makes clear, is more properly understood as a “word to the wise.” For the closest parallel to this approach, the rabbis point to the writings of Sirach.

Biblically speaking, divine law is equivalent to sanity. To live any other way is madness. Because God is the source of life, becoming familiar with the divine operating instructions is the best way to appreciate that gift. As Ben Sira writes, there's life and death out there, good and evil, fire and water. To whichever you choose, put out your hand—but do understand, these choices are not neutral. The outcomes will be dramatically different. Torah will save you, the sage insists. It will keep you from making the mistake you live to regret—that is, if you live at all.

When Jesus extends the law in his Sermon on the Mount, he's not doing it to make life harder than it already is. Jesus builds a fence around the law, as the rabbis phrase it. He tells us that the road to murder begins on the path of anger; adultery's highway has an entrance ramp from lust. If sin is not your destination, then by all means don't travel its tributaries. Properly understood, law deserves its own fan club. God's laws are designed, after all, with your happiness and user-satisfaction in mind.

Middle School Youth Day Was a Huge Success!

It's February 1 at St. Martin of Tours Church where 55 middle school youth from six parishes start with a Social Media Scavenger Hunt, roll into small group 'Minute to Win It' and 'Name that Tune' competitions. The youth also settled in for keynote speakers on the topics of 'Keeping Watch for God in our Daily Lives', 'Sharing Our Faith and Leading Other to Christ', and 'Mass... is so much more'.

The day ended with a take home bracelet craft that reinforced the faith journey lessons of the day. It was an amazing Middle School Youth Day experience! Contact dhertzig@olg-church.org for info about Escape for middle school youth.

The International Catholic Families (ICF) bus trip to

Pageant of Our Lord - Sat, Mar 28

Experience the magic of this magnificent production modeled after the world-renowned Pageant of the Masters in Laguna Beach using live actors to depict life-size paintings and sculptures on stage. This 2-hour performance is accompanied by original narration along with an 80-voice choir and a full live orchestra. More than 15,000 people attend the pageant each season to experience its inspiring message, beautiful music and breathtaking stage wizardry.

The bus leaves the OLG upper parking lot at 9:30 am. There will be a brief stop for a fast-food lunch then on to reserved seating for the performance that begins at 1:00 pm. Enjoy a leisurely dinner after at the Souplantation. Cost for both meals are your own. The bus will return to OLG by 7:30 pm.

The cost is $80.00. Secure your reservation today with a $40.00 deposit (the balance is due before Mar 15.)

Visit Upcoming Events at olg-church.org or call Deb at (619) 947-9272 or Nettie at (619) 251-2214.
