QUOTES ABOUT LENT

"Lent is a call to renew a commitment grown dull, perhaps by a life more marked by routine than by reflection."

~Joan Chittister O.S.B

"Lent is a fitting time for self denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty."

~Pope Francis

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will always include the use of incense.

So You Want to Be Perfect?

As children most of us believed in perfection as an attainable goal. Maybe not our own particular perfection (I was never going to get an A in science!), but the finish line was clearly marked out and someone was going to cross it. We were literally schooled into the quest for perfection: defined as an A+, or 100 percent answered correctly, or the coveted 4.0 at the end of the term. I could tell you quite dispassionately back then who was perfect and how: Patty was the kindest, Henry the smartest, Ed the fastest, Bernadette the holiest in the class.

Back when perfection came marked with a letter grade, it was a straightforward matter as to how to get there from here. But no one, as I remember, was good at everything. Henry was clearly Einstein-brilliant; he's a doctor today. But he didn't grasp poetry and wasn't a lot of fun either! My report card was evenly divided between A's and C's: Ask me if I cared about social studies or phys ed. To be perfect at everything—perfect at perfection—would be liking combining Patty, Henry, Ed, and Bernadette into one superchild! It would be like being God. That was Jesus' point exactly when he said: Don't imitate each other or compete against each other. Imitate God and make divine perfection your only standard.

Our Lord is not trying to be difficult; he only takes after his Father, if Leviticus is any indication. For there God tells Moses: "Be holy—because I am," and goes on to delineate 613 ways that perfection is measured according to Deuteronomic law. The lectionary here chooses to highlight one: Love your neighbor as yourself. That's poignant for us, because Jesus makes the same choice in his teaching: Love God and love your neighbor. Are we to embrace that as the new definition of perfection?

The summons to be perfect sounds exhausting. Just being presentable takes a lot out of me some days. Far from wanting a challenge, most of us, to be honest, are hoping for a break. Gone are the days when our progress through life was measured and recorded at every turn: how tall were we, how many tests did we pass, whether we were eligible for Confirmation that spring. We'd like to answer "present" at work these days and hope that counts for something. But the one place where our performance still counts for everything is the summons to love. Love God. Love neighbor. And prove it.
