Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or feast day will always be incense-free.

REMINDER: Flu Season Precautions
The parish is currently practicing safety precautions during the flu season.

Our traditional means of sharing the Sign of Peace and the Blood of Christ will return about mid-April.

Invitation to the RCIA

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the RCIA process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. For more information, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at jsawaya@olg-church.org or (858) 869-5079.

GUEST COLUMNIST

ALICE CAMILLE

Is it Asking Too Much?

Most of us have no quarrel with Jesus. When he says love one another and welcome little children, and peace I leave with you, we find nothing difficult or objectionable in these sayings. Most of what Jesus has to say sounds like good moral advice or happy and reassuring thoughts. We're content to call him Lord and follow his way when that way is congenial to the way we already want to go.

However . . . in the time of Jesus there were plenty of folks who were pleased to leave their jobs (which they didn't much care for anyway) and follow him around (which occasionally led to a free lunch) and listen to his teachings (which confirmed what they already believed about rich people and religious leaders in general). And they continued to do so until they ran hard up against the so-called "harsh sayings" of Jesus, which were so displeasing that most of his followers turned on their heels and went home harrumphing about him after that.

When Jesus tells us to be like the lilies and don't worry so much, we sigh and think it's a lovely idea. But when Jesus says love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, and bless those who curse you, what are we to make of that? For some of us, at least, these sayings are so ridiculous and impossible to take seriously that we have to presume they've lost something in the translation. When Jesus says "enemies," he doesn't mean the people who intend us harm, obviously. And when he talks about "doing good" to people who hate us, surely he implies some spiritual good, not actually being kind or thoughtful or helpful to them.

After all, it's the very definition of an enemy to be the person who's out to get you, and such a person is to be avoided or defeated at all costs. In certain cases, such a person should even be killed, we reason. So Jesus can't mean love your enemies. He must mean something else!

He doesn't

We have grown used to qualifying and limiting our responsibility to the holy will of God. For example, when we practice compassion, we tend to reserve it for those who "deserve" our compassion. Such people didn't participate in the circumstances of their misfortune, for instance. So we may extend compassion to a person who is ill because of exposure to asbestos, but not to a smoker who has lung cancer. We show mercy to the hurricane victim, but not the alcoholic who has developed diabetes.

We may do the same with our forgiveness. We may forgive people who have wronged us and confessed their behavior and worked to amend the damage, but not the person who never says she's sorry. When we qualify our responses in this way, we are practicing human justice, but we are not imitating the Lord who felt compassion for the people of Jerusalem who would shout for his crucifixion the next day, or who forgave those who were in the act of putting him to death because they were so ignorant.

When we practice human justice, expecting an eye for an eye, loving our friends and hating our enemies, repaying people in kind for what they do, nothing is accomplished according to the reign of God. The reign of God is extended when God's will is done and something truly divine is allowed to come to life among us. Heavenly justice is so much grander than just evening out the score; it enlarges our own hearts and vision when we have the courage to participate in it.

David gains stature over Saul

What would it have gained David to seize the moment and destroy his enemy Saul while he slept? It would have solved a problem he had, surely. It would have eliminated a man who was bent on killing him. But David has been anointed by a prophet to be a king, and that means he has to show a kingly sensibility about the origins and privileges of power. Knowing that a king rules by divine decree and not his own pleasure, David honors King Saul even in this dangerous hour. In turn, Saul perceives that David is indeed greater,

Wisdom & Works of Mercy Retreat Coming!

With humor and ease, Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, deftly unlocks the 'one thing,' the key to the Church's wisdom, and the greatest mystery of the Catholic faith: the Most Holy Trinity. Far from being an academic read, The 'One Thing' is Three makes deep theology accessible to everyday Catholics. What's more, it makes even what's familiar or forgotten new, exciting, and relevant.

Mondays starting Mar 11 for 10 weeks. Two sessions: 9:15 to 10:45 am or 7:00 to 8:30 pm. There is no charge for the retreat but participants need to order a "Wisdom & Works of Mercy Participant Packet" (with "The 'One Thing' is Three" book) online at <https://bit.ly/2DU2Mkv> or by phone at (866) 767-3155. The cost is $39.95.

For more info and to register for the retreat, contact Ken Discenza at sitedesign@sda-pe.com or (619) 464-0792.

more kingly, and more deserving of divine favor than he himself. David grows in stature and grace in the eyes of his men, and even under the steady gaze of his enemy. David wins more than the life of his enemy in this encounter.

The only way we, too, can grow and expand in grace and knowledge of the ways of God is to practice them. When we do, the kingdom Jesus announced “leans” into view and into our reality, not simply through what is decent and legal by earthly standards, but when we live by a higher rule altogether. When we get above who’s right and who’s wrong and stop judging and condemning others according to their actions, what we see from that God’s-eye view might astound us.

Be merciful as God is merciful

We may balk at the idea that we ought to adjust our response to be like God’s because, after all, who among us is like God? We have to remember that love, compassion, and forgiveness are not about what we feel but how we choose. These are divine attributes and as such do not properly belong to us at all. Even Jesus didn’t say, “I forgive you,” to his enemies from the cross; he asked God to forgive them. When our emotions don’t line up with our Christian responsibility to be as God is, then we can choose to love and forgive not by our own weak and limited authority but by the limitless power of God. For God does indeed love those who have set themselves against the divine will; does have mercy on those unworthy of compassion; and does forgive those who are unforgivable. We don’t have to look farther than in the mirror to know what that means for us. If we want to be counted as the children of God, adopting heavenly values is the quickest way to embrace that identity.
