Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will always include the use of incense.

Invitation to the R.C.I.A.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the R.C.I.A. process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. Please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish website.

The Possibilities a Child Presents

Here's the good news for those who've just had a baby: You get to take home a bundle of love who will be the apple of your eye for years to come. It's like being born again yourself. Wonder will come to live at your house. Your lineage will continue. The world has a future. Who knows what this child will accomplish? The possibilities of this new life are endless.

Here's the bad news: This baby will cry, wet, and need you without mercy for years to come. This child arrives with a huge price tag: a commitment that costs dollars, time, privacy, personal goals, sleepless nights, nonstop worry. There will be disappointments, grief, and rejection up ahead. The possibilities for heartache are endless.

All moms and dads get mixed reviews about their new career as parents. As a survival tactic they tend to selectively forget the bad news and focus their hope and energy on the good. The news that Mary and Joseph got when they brought Jesus to the Temple that day, however, was more extreme than usual. An old man they'd never met insisted their son would be a success story for his nation and a path for foreigners to follow. He would be a game-changer for the powerful and the voiceless alike. He would face great opposition and cause great suffering—to his mother; the absence of his father in this prediction sounded ominous. Meanwhile, at the sight of their baby, a prophetess immediately gave thanks for his life and began to tell everyone that God's ancient promises were about to come true.

What should his parents have thought of all this? Could one child bring such sweeping and opposing destinies into reality by his mere existence? Greatness is one thing; hostility another. Was it necessary that the first should ignite the flames of the second? Perhaps they put away the dark predictions and set their sights on the bright ones. Or they may have shelved both in favor of focusing on the happy now of parenthood. They had a child to raise, an income to earn, water to draw, and meals to prepare. Life was full enough in the moment without preoccupation with two such conflicting visions of tomorrow. You can't live in tomorrow. The proper place for mortals is always today.

This holy family learned early that trusting in God today includes entrusting the future to God until tomorrow arrives. God was sufficient in Bethlehem as in Nazareth, in the manger as in the Temple. God would continue to be sufficient wherever the future took their son. God is sufficient wherever the future finds you.

FROM the PASTOR

VERY REV. PETER M. MCGUINE

Dear Parishioners,

On the weekend of December 8, I shared with you the news that Mrs. Erin Mares would be serving as the Interim Principal of OLG School until a new principal search reached its conclusion. I anticipated conducting the search in the early months of this year in conjunction with the Diocese of San Diego's Office for Schools.

After consulting the Finance Council of the parish at our meeting of January 16, I made the decision to invite Mrs. Mares to serve as our permanent principal. I am very pleased to report that she has accepted my invitation and, effective immediately, is no longer considered "interim"! As a result, we will not be convening a principal search committee and conducting a search for a new principal.

Please join me in congratulating Mrs. Erin Mares in her new role when you see her on campus or at school. I look forward to working with her and the OLG School teachers and staff in continuing to provide a first-rate education for our students.

Our Lady, full of grace, pray for us!

Fr. Peter
