May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or feast day will always be incense-free.

Invitation to the RCIA

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the RCIA process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. For more information, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or jsawaya@olg-church.org.

Bearing Gifts

Thank God for those three kings! For those of us who can't bear to see the holidays end and chronically have a hard time taking down the Christmas tree each year, the Feast of the Epiphany supplies one more excuse to keep the holiday spirit going. Just as the pine needles and poinsettia leaves are dropping like flies, and about the time the last wrapped box has been passed over to the late-arriving holiday visitor, the Magi arrive to save the day and keep the celebration alive. They are like the fashionably late folks who show up after the first guests have already left and the chip bowls are eaten down to the crumbs. As we know, the Magi famously bring gifts, and they also bring their homage. But perhaps the most important thing they bring, as far as our liturgical year is concerned, is one more reason to keep the party going.

Epiphany and epiphanies

It's no wonder that Epiphany feels like the last gasp of the Christmas holiday. Technically speaking, Epiphany used to be Christmas to half of the known church, and the two celebrations share a common beginning. Historically, the Feast of the Epiphany is only belatedly about the arrival of the astrologers from the East with gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The original celebration has its roots in the unreliable early calendars that differed from one end of the known world to the other. Today we presume uniformity in our secular and sacred calendars alike. But for the early church, that was not the case. Our current feast of Christmas, as we know, was celebrated as a Christian response to the pagan rituals of the winter solstice observed since the third century on December 25. As the empire worshipped the "invincible sun god" of winter's dying light, Christians adored the "invincible Son of God" who brings light to the "people who walk in darkness." But that was true only according to the calendar of the West; in the East, the solstice was celebrated on January 6. And so two "Christmases" arose in the early church, lending us the "12 days of Christmas" we know from the song.

And what was commemorated on this Christian solstice, East and West, on either date? It varied from one community to another. Some honored the Incarnation of Jesus in the Nativity; others proclaimed the revelation of Jesus as God's son in his Baptism; still others celebrated the arrival of the Magi and their acknowledgment of Jesus as literally the "King of Kings"; while some preferred to recall the miracle at Cana through which Jesus revealed the first sign of his divinity. It wasn't until the fourth century that December 25, regularized as the Feast of the Nativity in the West, was similarly adopted in the East. At that time, the East claimed January 6 as the Feast of the Epiphany, most frequently celebrating what we now call the Baptism of the Lord on that date. By the fifth century, the West claimed January 6 for Epiphany as well, preferring to honor the arrival of the Magi on that day. Yet Armenian rite churches today still celebrate Christ's Nativity on January 6. The scrambled roots of this feast are hardly untied.

One seamless celebration

But why should we untie them? Why not acknowledge what the early church perceived: that all of these events speak of one and the same revelation? These four feasts—Nativity, the coming of the Magi, the Baptism of the Lord (which we celebrate next Sunday), and the miracle at Cana (which we celebrate the week after—are all Epiphanies; that is, they all manifest the eternal and ongoing presence of God in our midst. God chooses to be known to us as the Word-made-flesh of Jesus born in Bethlehem. The divine is revealed before the nations symbolically in the visitation of foreign wise men bearing gifts. A voice from heaven claims Jesus as the divine Son at his Baptism. And the power of heaven is manifested by Jesus in the water-made-wine of his first miracle. All four events speak of the same extraordinary truth!

Other epiphanies close to home

If we learn nothing else from the church's early scramble to define one precise experience as "epiphany," it's that there are lots to choose from. God is always lifting the veil between heaven and earth and affording us a look-see! The beauty of the natural world is an obvious and ongoing epiphany: When was the last time a night sky or a birdsong or a purple-mountain-majesty lifted your heart wordlessly? The encounter of love is another: Is there a face above all others that softens you the moment you catch sight of it from a distance? Or how about the experience of rescue, otherwise known as salvation: the second after a near-miss on the freeway or being dragged choking from the ocean because you misread the strength of the waves—does not that first minute of gratefulness for just being alive feel like a new lease on life?

We have the hour of sacrament; the rare but palpable experience of being "met" in our prayer; the very real miracles of healing and forgiveness and compassion; you can probably add more. The wise men brought three gifts, but Epiphany brings multitudes. God wants to be known to us. Look! Listen! And celebrate.
