Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

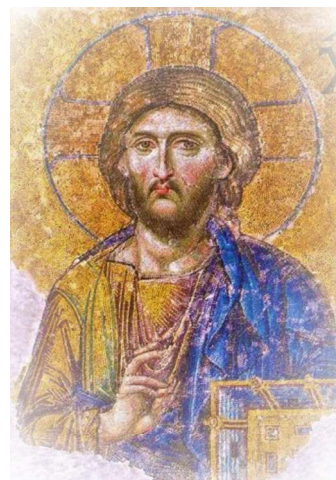

Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We invite you to enrich your life through joining our parish family. In addition to our liturgies there are many ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact our Director of Catechetical Ministry, Lissa Hutcheson, at (619) 466-5656. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079. You can also contact them by using the "Contact us" link at olg-church.org.

Allergies

The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will almost always include the use of incense.

Mindfulness of Others

Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy so to avoid distracting those around you.

GROW: My favorite line in "The Wizard of Oz," in the climactic scene when Dorothy realizes "there's no place like home," comes from Glinda: "You've always had the power to go back to Kansas," she tells Dorothy. In the first reading today, Moses tells the Israelites something similar about wisdom and power. He tells them the secret to peace and prosperity isn't "mysterious" or "remote." He says "it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts." In the Gospel, when the scholar asks Jesus about the secret to eternal life, he answers his own question by reciting the two great commandments: love God with all your heart, being, strength, and mind, and your neighbor as yourself. "You have answered correctly," Jesus tells him. At our baptism, the Holy Spirit placed the wisdom and power to have the fullness of life in our hearts. The key is to "carry it out," as Moses advises the Israelites. Jesus echoes this message: We must "do this" – love God and our neighbor – to enjoy the life God wants for us today and eternal life with him in the future.

GO: One of the most heartbreaking things about being a parent is seeing children set limits for who's in and who's out. My daughter was in Kindergarten when she came home in tears, excluded from playing with her friends because she didn't color a picture exactly as directed by another classmate. Our loving Father also sees our pain when we are excluded from being loved, and so when the scholar asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus refuses to set boundaries for who to include and who to exclude. In using the parable about the Samaritan, Jesus tells us that we are to treat everyone as neighbor, even our enemies. The Samaritans were enemies of the Jews, and those listening to Jesus would have been shocked that a Samaritan was the compassionate hero. This parable challenges us to consider the boundaries we set for who we consider neighbors – those worthy of our compassion and help, and perhaps those we consider "other," or whom we feel we can ignore or reject. And to recognize how the boundaries we set prevent us from sharing the Good News of God's mercy to those he seeks to heal.

PRAY: Ask the Holy Spirit for the wisdom to discern who you may be excluding as a neighbor. Pray these words from Dorothy Day: "Dear God, please enlarge our hearts to love each other, to love our neighbor, to love our enemy as well as our friend."

On the cover: Deacons Bradley Easterbrooks, 37, and Guillermo “Memo” Hernandez, 30, were ordained priests by Cardinal-designate Robert McElroy at Saint Gabriel Church on Jun 24. At far right is Archbishop Timothy Broglio of the Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS), USA. After several years of parish work here in the Diocese of San Diego, Fr. Brad will be released to the AMS for service as an active duty military chaplain in the U.S. Navy. This summer, Fr. Brad will serve at Holy Trinity Parish in El Cajon, and Fr. Memo at St. Jude Shrine of the West in San Diego. Both priests will return to Rome in the fall for one additional year of advanced theological studies. For the full story visit tinyurl.com/2p86nc7b.

Synod Listening Session Follow-up

Earlier this year our parish held small-group sessions to listen to your experiences in the Church, in a process called a synod. For those who were unable to attend these small-group sessions, the Diocese of San Diego will offer a second opportunity this coming fall for you to be heard—this time via an online survey. Sign up for the “Synod Listening Fall Survey” Flocknote list by visiting: olgelcajon.flocknote.com/signup/92947.

What Jesus Doesn't Say

"If Jesus wanted us to (fill in the blank), he would have said so."

We hear this argument applied to every controversial topic under the sun — and even some not-so-controversial topics, too. Whenever someone is trying to make a case for a decision they have already made, they call in Jesus' scriptural silence on the matter as their expert, unimpeachable witness.

And sure, there's much Jesus doesn't talk about in the Gospels. But by this logic, we would have to assume that Jesus doesn't care, for instance, if we drive well over the speed limit (he doesn't discuss cars and highways in the Bible) or what we do online (he never mentions the Internet or websites at all!), when we know that certainly is just not the case.

Like the scholar of the Jewish law who challenges Jesus to define who exactly his "neighbor" is, we can argue semantics all we want. But if we rest in prayer and look deep into our hearts, we know what path we need to take, and it's usually not the easy one.

I find that I do this plenty in ways that are far more subtle. I lament that the situation facing me is not sufficiently "black and white." I become frustrated by the shades of moral grey and toss up my hands, claiming I don't know what the right answer is, insisting that I can't be blamed for the ramifications of whatever decision I make.

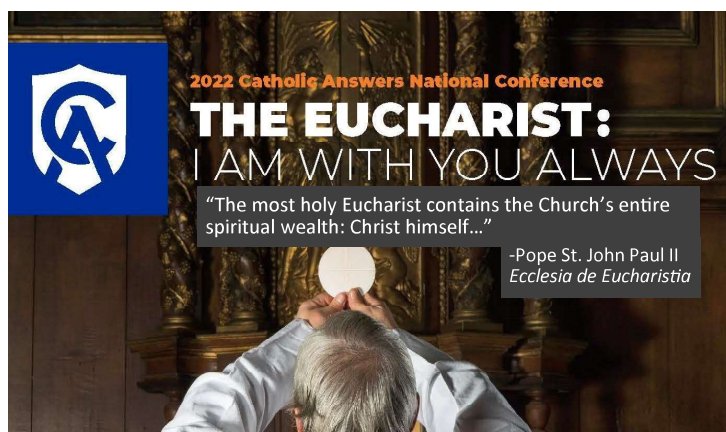

What I need to be doing in these situations is asking God for His guidance, even if it makes me nervous. I need to be like the scholar. He was brave enough to ask, even though I think he knew he wouldn't particularly like the answer. Let's strive for that same courage.

2022 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO 2022 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL BULLETIN UPDATE FOR OUR LADY OF GRACE PARISH

July 10, 2022 — Report Number 5

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is so appropriate that the theme of our Annual Catholic Appeal this year is "Living Our Mission." For our work of the Diocese of San Diego in the time ahead will indeed be to prayerfully live our mission as we move out of the pandemic towards a re-energized and renewed Church in San Diego and Imperial Counties.

This revitalization and renewal will take place through our parish life, in our schools, families, and in our outreach to the needy and the marginalized in our midst. As we begin 2022, we also renew our commitment to living our baptismal promise. Our Annual Catholic Appeal will support the formation of and care for our priests, who dedicate their lives to God and to the service and love of all our brothers and sisters in Christ.

The Appeal will support our Catholic schools and faith formation programs, which bring hope and faith to our young people and lead us to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ. The Appeal will support our Office for Family Life and Spirituality in its focus on strengthening the family at this time in our history.

And the Appeal will help Catholic Charities to continue the good works of serving our neediest brothers and sisters and all who have suffered most greatly from the social and economic devastation of the past year.

By supporting our Annual Catholic Appeal you will be delivering hope to our youth, young adults, families and seniors, to our parish communities and living our mission in the world. I ask you to prayerfully consider supporting this splendid work of the Lord.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Robert W. McElroy
Bishop of San Diego

Can we add YOUR NAME here?

This year's Appeal supports:

Catholic Schools • Catholic Charities • Faith Formation • Clergy Formation & Support

Remember, 100% of funds collected over our parish goal will be returned to the parish to fund overdue deferred maintenance and capital improvement projects. To make a gift or pledge, go to www.olg-church.org or pick up a special ACA packet in the main entry of the church. Thank you for your generosity! —Fr. Peter McGuine
