A close-up photograph of a single, lustrous white pearl resting on a bed of vibrant green moss. Several thin, reddish-brown stalks with small, dark, bulbous tips rise from the moss, framing the pearl. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green.

We love having you as part of our flock! Get updates about Masses and parish life via email or text! Sign up! Visit olg-church.org and look for the blue and white sheep.

Public Mass Update

Masses continue to be celebrated outside, in front of the church. Because the number of persons at Mass is no longer limited to 100, there is no longer a need for reservations at weekend Masses. Bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on. Face coverings are still required, as is physical distancing. Bottled water, hats, hand sanitizer, and sunscreen are recommended. Our Ambassadors will be present to assist you. The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays continues to be dispensed by Bishop McElroy. For more info, visit olg-church.org and look for the NOTICE box.

Masses are being Streamed Online

On the parish website we have listed multiple links to options to participate in Sunday and daily Mass online in the Diocese of San Diego and beyond. Visit olg-church.org and click on the gray "Parish Update..." button and then the yellow "Sustaining Faith in the Time of Pandemic" button. Scroll to listed Mass links.

"He is The Bread sown in the virgin, leavened in the Flesh, molded in His Passion, baked in the furnace of the Sepulchre, placed in the Churches, and set upon the Altars, which daily supplies Heavenly Food to the faithful."

~St. Peter Chrysologus, Feast Day July 30

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

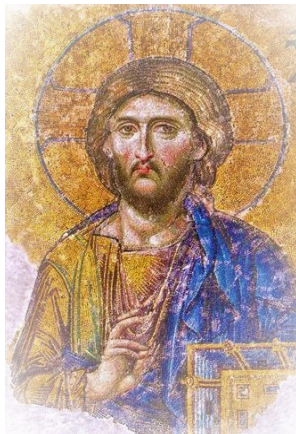

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will often include the use of incense.

Invitation to the R.C.I.A.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the R.C.I.A. process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. Please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish webpage.

I Will Open My Mouth in Parables

The answer to our prayers

If you could have anything, what would you ask for? One man knows at once what his heart desires: “A red Ferrari!” A harried parent declares: “A long vacation without the kids.” Still another dreams of tuition for college, and the list grows longer as we all dream together: a house by the sea, marriage to a movie star, the safety of loved ones, a miraculous healing, a million dollars, peace on earth. Some of our wishes are motivated by self-interest, whim, or a steady diet of television. Others may be selfless, sensible, or even noble.

But in all the years I’ve listened to folks talking starry-eyed about their dream acquisition, I’ve never heard anyone ask for what young Solomon wanted when God put the question to him in a dream. “Give me an understanding heart,” the young man said. It would appear that he was already well on his way to having one.

And this is the punchline of most Wisdom literature, ironically enough: The wise seek wisdom, and fools love foolishness. So in a sense, the prayer for wisdom is something only the wise are praying for.

You can never be too wise

Of course, we all know how Solomon turned out: wiser than any scholar and philosopher of his age and perhaps any age. He made an admirable judgment regarding the child with two mothers. He certainly impressed the shrewd Queen of Sheba. But very smart men can still make very dumb choices, and Solomon made his share. He did build a lavish temple to honor the Lord, taking seven long years to do it. But then he spent 13 years building his own palace, showing a startling lack of proportion. Add this to the forced labor upon which these monuments were built, and the hard taxes levied to support these projects, and the toll of human suffering mounts.

God warns Solomon of one line he must not cross, and that’s in the veneration of foreign gods. The temple will be repudiated and the people will become a byword of loss among the nations if the ban on idol worship is breached. No warning could be clearer. So what does the wisest man on earth do? Marries 700 foreign women and takes 300 concubines besides. Shrines to strange gods were not far behind.

So maybe wisdom isn’t all it’s cracked up to be—which is to say, it isn’t enough. Wisdom has to be attached to a human will humble enough to submit to it in order to be effective. Otherwise, being able to recite Ben Sira, Deepak Chopra, the Dalai Lama, and even Jesus Christ from memory may make you a hit at rarified gatherings, but it won’t make you truly wise.

Kingdom wisdom

Kingdom wisdom isn’t the same as conventional wisdom, that’s for sure. Parables of the Kingdom often employ paradox in order to tweak our vision of reality and leave it somewhat askew. It’s awfully easy for egocentric humans to become convinced that we have a lock on the truth, be it political, moral, or religious. Every time Jesus spoke of the Kingdom, therefore, it was with an eye to destabilizing our understanding. The last will be first, the least greatest, virgins shall give birth, and the dead will rise. What we expect will not come to pass, and what we believe to be frankly out of the question is somehow suddenly the only possible scenario.

What can we do with such implausible, uncomfortable wisdom? We can avoid the near occasion of it and stop coming to church. We can ignore it, dismissing it as so much religious candy at the sideboard of an otherwise wholesome feast. We can call it metaphor and mean that it is not to be taken literally or seriously. Or we can entertain the possibility that everything we are raised to value and seek in this world is utterly worthless; and everything we dread, fear, and despise in this world is to be prized.

In other words, we become madmen and madwomen, running around like Francis of Assisi declaring that, the worse things get, the

Walking with Purpose is a Bible study here at OLG for women of all ages (20-70+ years), all stages of life, and all levels of faith. The studies include practical bible teachings consistent with Church doctrine.

During this time of sheltering in place members are taking a break from meetings but they are not taking a break from ministry. The women of Walking with Purpose want you to know they are here for you!

Do you feel lonely? Members will call you for a chat. Is it difficult to get groceries? Members will shop for you. Do you need prayers? Members will pray with you!

better they are; the more we are despised, the happier we are. Is this healthy? Is this reasonable? Is this what Jesus wants from us?

"Do you understand all these things?"

The right answer to Jesus' question is: No. The disciples, being the lug nuts they are, say Yes. Yes, they fully appreciate that a person who finds a treasure buried in a field will sell everything he has to buy the field. They understand that a merchant who knows the value of a pearl will divest himself of all his resources to acquire the finest one. As fishermen, they see the wisdom in evaluating the contents of one's net, keeping the good fish and throwing the inedible ones away. They are willing to bet that the angels in heaven will do the same in separating the wicked from the righteous. What they fail to appreciate is how all of this applies to them—how absolutely transforming it would be to give away the life you have for a life you cannot see. They might trade up, as they did when they left their nets to follow Jesus—that makes sense. But what about the day when it is time to trade down, from discipleship to martyrdom? What about when it's their turn to be buried like that treasure in the field, or when buying the pearl means biting the Big One?

More precious than gold

As the mystics like to say, humility is the first step toward wisdom—and it's every step after that. We can't fully understand why the Kingdom turns worldly reality upside down, and why everything we've been taught to want is going the way of moths and rust. We can be forgiven for needing a few moments to collect ourselves, to shed a few tears for the wealth we've been seeking and hoarding, to say goodbye to the red Ferrari and the tropical island paradise of our dreams. The pearl awaits us. Are we going to buy it, or just admire it from here?

A Little Humor - As told to/shared by Br. Raymond Pierce, CSSR

A Catechist was teaching about king Solomon. "Though king Solomon was very wise he had one flaw. What was that?" she asked the class.

A little girl raised her hand and excitedly answered, "He had 700 wives and 300 porky pines!"

Not wanting to explain concubines the Catechist replied, "Correct."

"Love ought to manifest itself in deeds rather than in words... love consists in a mutual sharing of goods, for example, the lover gives and shares with the beloved what he possesses, or something of that which he has or is able to give; and vice versa, the beloved shares with the lover. Hence, if one has knowledge, he shares it with the one who does not possess it; and so also if one has honors, or riches. Thus, one always gives to the other."

Saint Martha

Feast Day – July 29

Martha and her siblings, Mary and Lazarus, are Jesus' friends in Bethany. In Luke 10:38-42, while Mary sits at Jesus' feet, Martha is busy serving. When she complains to Jesus, he says: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. ... Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." Just before Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead (John 11:1-44), Martha confesses: "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God." She is the patron of cooks and servers.
