FOOD AND FELLOWSHIP IN THE PARISH CENTER

All are welcome Sunday mornings after Mass

Jul 27	Coffee & Donut Sunday Sponsored by the Events Committee Join us for a variety of donuts, milk, juices and coffee! See you there!
Aug 3	Food & Fellowship Sunday Sponsored by the International Catholic Families Stop in to enjoy a breakfast casserole with vegetarian and meat options, fresh summer fruit and donuts, of course! Complimentary beverages and fellowship with your parish community guaranteed!
Aug 10	Coffee & Donut Sunday Sponsored by Cub Scouts Pack 951 Our young scouts will serve a variety of donuts, milk, juices and coffee! See you there!

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We offer ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact Deacon John Sawaya at: jsawaya@olg-church.org. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please also contact Deacon John Sawaya. You can also contact him by using the "Contact us" link at olg-church.org.

Allergies

The first morning Mass of a holy day will always be incense-free.

Mindfulness of Others

Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy to avoid distracting those around you.

Dear good people of Our Lady of Grace,

I would like to begin by first offering my heartfelt gratitude to each of you for the role you have played in my early years of priesthood. The first few years of priesthood are a formative time as the young cleric is putting into practice all the knowledge he learned in seminary. This often comes with numerous failures and shortcomings as he attempts to find his bearings and how to appropriately and pastorally respond to every situation. As a parish community, you have all been patient with me as I learn, mature and grow in my priestly identity and as I navigate how to respond to the spectrum of experiences that are present in the daily life of the faithful. I appreciate your kind words of critique and affirmation these past two years as I have entered into this new vocation of priestly service. So, from the bottom of my heart: thank you!

Over these two years, I have had the privilege of walking with many of you through life's most meaningful moments; celebrating baptisms, weddings, first communions hearing confessions, giving presentations, as well as accompanying you through times of grief and loss. I have witnessed firsthand your deep faith, your love for the Church, and your desire to serve Christ in everyday life. These experiences have not only strengthened my vocation but have reminded me again and again of the beauty of the priesthood and the strength of the Body of Christ. I will truly miss my involvement in every aspect of ministry—from the 55+ Club lunches, parish celebrations hosted by the CWC, Events Committee, and Knights of Columbus, to leading classes for faith formation and working with our school community. While I may not be with you physically, please know that you will always remain close in my heart and in my prayers.

As I begin this new chapter as Director of Priestly Vocations for the Diocese of San Diego, I am filled with both humility and excitement. This new role is both humbling and exciting, as I will be working closely with men who are discerning the call to the priesthood. While also inviting all young men to be open to the Lord's call. I ask for your prayers as I take on this important responsibility, helping guide future shepherds of the Church and laborers in the vineyard. Please know that I will carry with me the experiences and lessons I have learned during my time here at Our Lady of Grace, which have helped shape me as a priest and as a servant of the people of God. May the Lord continue to bless and keep this community. May He deepen your love for the Eucharist, strengthen your commitment to each other, and fill you with joy and zeal of the Gospel. May we all continue to say "yes" to whatever God asks of us and how he is calling us to serve.

With gratitude, joy and love in Christ,

Sincerely,
Rev. Marc Gandolfo

Why Register with the Parish?

You’ve made the decision to know God better by attending Mass at OLG – we are glad you are here! If you haven’t already, please register with the parish. Your registration plugs you in to the next steps of your faith journey – a deeper sense of belonging and participation in our growing faith community. Registering helps us stay connected and serve you better. It is also necessary for certain benefits, such as scheduling a Baptism, sacrament preparation and registration in Faith Formation, as well as obtaining Sponsor (Godparent) letters. Your registration helps our diocese, too. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church and what benefits and obligations the parish community has that will benefit the greater community at large. All demonstrating your trust and hope in faith!

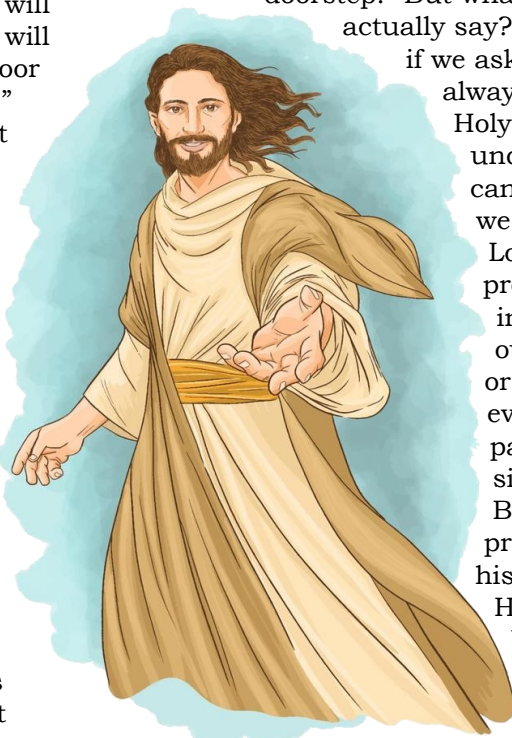

CONGRATULATIONS!

Most Reverend Michael Pham was installed as the seventh bishop of the Catholic Diocese of San Diego at St. Thérèse of Carmel Parish by Archbishop José H. Gomez, of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. He is the first Vietnamese-American bishop to lead a U.S. diocese.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GROW: “Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” Sounds lovely, doesn’t it? I remember understanding this verse as though God is like a genie in a bottle and prayer is like a delivery service. But when I encountered true hardship, this interpretation was tested. I was seeking, but I couldn’t find what I wanted. My request seemed to go unanswered. I was asking, but my hands were empty. I couldn’t reconcile this. Did this mean God wasn’t telling me the truth? Trusting that couldn’t be the case, I pressed in a little harder. In time, and through the grace of God, I realized I’d been reading this verse through selfish eyes. I was understanding this passage to say, “ask for whatever you feel like in the moment, and I’ll drop it on your doorstep.” But what does Jesus actually say? He says that if we ask, he will always give us the Holy Spirit. This understanding can change how we pray. The Lord doesn’t promise to instantly cure our maladies, or to remove every ounce of pain on this side of the veil. But he does promise to send his Advocate, the Holy Spirit, to be with us through it all. And that is far better than any type of delivery service.

GO: Today’s psalm echoes the Gospel message that the Lord never abandons us. In our response, we unite our voices with the universal Church as we say, “Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.” We encounter hardship on a daily basis. From the tiny irritations that tempt our tempers to flare to the heavy crosses we carry, we are reminded of how much we need God’s help. And yet, how often is our response to turn inward and grow weary, discouraged, or angry? Next time we come eye to eye with a challenge, let’s try to respond like the psalmist, and cry out to the Advocate. He is very near. Come Holy Spirit.

REFLECT: We are reminded in today’s readings that the Lord is always near, that he hears us, and that he responds generously. Thank God this is true even when it doesn’t seem like it. As we face our daily hardships, let’s not forget to ask Jesus for help. Don’t forget that he never rations the Spirit, and though he will never force himself on you, he’s waiting eagerly to pour his love into your heart. Ask! Seek! Knock! He knows your voice, and he is ready to respond.
