Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents are welcome to make use of this chapel with restless children. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or feast day will always be incense-free.

OLG NEW LIFE AT CAMP EMMAUS

Camp Emmaus (June 25-29) was attended by members of the OLG New Life Core Team, where they not only learned leadership skills, but also experienced faith enrichment and team building among leaders from other parishes in the Diocese.

Each day presented a full schedule from 7am to 11pm for the youth to enjoy. The theme of this year's camp was "One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic," which was presented daily in the large session activity workshops.

Pictured at the right is a water activity with the theme "Holy." Each team had to help one of their members "get to heaven" - by not letting them touch the water on the boogie boards they were on. There were afternoon workshops for Rookies, Veterans, Musicians and Young Adult Leaders. Each evening, participants enjoyed group activities such as "Camp Emmaus Olympics", dance lessons, a concert by the band Emmaus Blvd, and a Talent Show.

Faith Formation and the Crazy Family Calendar

We hope for every child to be an active participant in faith formation through their grade school and high school years, and trust that every adult member of our parish engages in an active discipleship in the parish, that includes weekly Mass participation, ongoing formation and spiritual growth.

We know it can be hard. We want to give our families the best, and in the process sometimes we are scheduled in so many things that we begin to pull back on some activities thinking “what can be cut out because there’s too much going on, we can’t be everywhere at the same time”. This works for the short term but at some point, parents need to look at longer term goals.

We choose to give our children music lessons, pay sports team fees, etc. These prepare them to be physically and mentally strong. What do we do to equip our children to get into heaven, that which is so much more long-lasting?

I have read about studies that show young people who have faith participate less frequently in at risk behaviors and in general are happier, and more well-adjusted. They tend to be more generous and compassionate, qualities that are of great value/need in society. They feel part of the Body of Christ and it makes a difference. As parents, where do we want our children to be spiritually at 21? at 35? at 75?!

With a bulging family calendar, we may feel we can reduce Mass attendance and cut out Faith Formation after a child receives First Communion.

The Church teaches that forming our faith and being a participating member of a parish community is a lifelong journey.

The question is, “Why would anyone want their child to receive Baptism, Reconciliation and Eucharist and then withdraw from praying and serving with the Christian community?” What is lost when years later parents want them to kindle a desire for the Sacrament of Confirmation? If we are going to build families of faith, if being a Catholic Christian is going to be more than another optional tick box on the family calendar, then we need to consistently be Church together.

Faith Formation gives our children - and ourselves - permission to explore our faith, wrestle with our faith, and grow in our faith - and that offers great hope for our children and our Church!

We know life happens. But I am happy to say that there are home study options for families with shared custody and other immovable calendar challenges. Register your child/ren for Faith Formation peer communities now!
