Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We invite you to enrich your life through joining our parish family. In addition to our liturgies there are many ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact our Director of Catechetical Ministry, Lissa Hutcheson, at (619) 466-5656. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079. You can also contact them by using the

Allergies

The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will almost always include the use of incense.

Mindfulness of Others

Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy so to avoid distracting those around you.

The Most Holy Trinity

Mass readings:

Prv 8:22-31

Rom 5:1-5

Jn 16:12-15

GROW: St. Paul gives us four words to live by: "Hope does not disappoint." Today, as we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded of the source of our hope: God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, described by Pope Francis as "a communion of love." As St. Paul writes, "the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." This doesn't mean our lives won't be without difficulties, but St. Paul is assuring us that we do not face them alone. As Jesus tells the disciples in today's Gospel, "when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth." As we move into our week and whatever the near future holds, we can rest assured the Holy Spirit will guide us and strengthen us.

GO: It's graduation season! When my oldest son received his college diploma last weekend, I felt overwhelmed with gratitude and excitement for what lies ahead for him. As is the case for many students, his path to a degree was not straight (nor was it paved with straight A's). Yet here he was, receiving his degree and planning to start a job in a field he loves just two days later. The worries I felt during his high school and early college days dissipated, replaced with a sense of gratitude – and hope. This experience and others like it remind me to bring my worries and concerns to prayer, knowing that Jesus walks beside me and those I love. We can witness to our faith by offering to pray for others facing uncertainties and challenges, and by sharing how we have experienced "peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

PRAY: Pray the Sign of the Cross, reflecting on the love of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. How have we experienced that love and how can we share it?

Written by The Faithful Disciple

The Polite Child

Working as a pediatric nurse, I had the difficult assignment of giving immunization shots to children.

One day, I entered the examining room to give four year-old Lizzie her needle.

"No, no, no!" she screamed. "Lizzie," scolded her mother, "that's not polite behavior."

With that, the girl yelled even louder, "No, thank you! No, thank you!"

Child's Notes to God:

- Dear God, in school they told us what You do. Who does it when You are on vacation?
- Dear God, I went to this wedding and they kissed right in the church. Is that okay?

Visit olg-church.org and click on the "Living Our Mission - 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal" ad to make your gift or pledge to this year's appeal. Thanks!

Mental Health Resources from Our Diocese

The “Mental Health” webpage of the Office for Family Life & Spirituality at the Diocese of San Diego offers a comprehensive list of links to help with many mental health challenges. The webpage provides links to sites that provide face-to-face online therapy sessions with licensed psychologists, social workers and other mental health disciplines with a wide variety of specialties. Additional resources include a Crisis Text

Line and links to local Affiliated Groups to help with overcoming depression, post-abortion healing, survivors of suicide loss and more. Also, a list of therapists for referral is available by calling (858) 490-8299. To access these resources visit olg-church.org then scroll to the green Mental Health ad.

Medical Equipment

The Knights of Columbus Francis Cabrini Council 8879 has gently-used medical equipment such as walkers, canes, wheelchairs and commode chairs available for use by those in need.

If you need medical equipment or have something to donate Frank at (619) 672-8332 to make arrangements to pick up or drop off.

Per the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) face coverings are strongly recommended in indoor settings, regardless of vaccination status.

Up to the Job

Have you ever had a job for which you didn't feel qualified? I think we all have, whether it was a paying gig or not. A lot of us parents often feel in awe of the magnitude of that role and lose sleep worrying that we made the wrong decision in one situation or a bad call in another. Some of us feel intimidated by what our communities need from us, on the parish level or in our personal relationships. Or maybe we are simply dreading a task that seems too big, too overwhelming — that necessary basement cleanout, or the weekly organization of family schedules.

When we don't feel qualified, we don't want to do the work. We get stuck in our own fear. That's the birthplace of procrastination, self-doubt and bitterness. When we look inward at our own abilities, we can only see all the traits that aren't there. The intelligence, the dexterity, the ambition — whatever it is we lack, we get stuck on it.

I've got good news and bad news. I'll start with the bad news: none of us are qualified for the call of discipleship. We simply aren't. We don't have the love or grace or strength to get the job done.

Now I'll give you the good news: God knows this, and He doesn't care. Stewardship does not insist that we possess every good quality — no, as a way of life, stewardship recognizes that we lack so many qualities. But it shows us where to find the love and grace and strength we need. Stewardship does not demand that we know every answer; it merely reminds us who to ask when we don't.
