Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or feast day will always be incense-free.

REMINDER: Flu Season Precautions
The parish is currently practicing safety precautions during the flu season.

Our traditional means of sharing the Sign of Peace and the Blood of Christ will return about mid-April.

GUEST COLUMNIST

ALICE CAMILLE

Heart Fruit

Abraham Lincoln said it a little differently than the sage who composed our First Reading, but it's the same idea. Lincoln said: "It is better to remain silent and thought a fool, than to speak up and remove all doubt." Since the time of ancient Egypt, many have agreed that, compared with most speech, "silence is golden." And silence earns its glorious reputation because we often use language so badly. Sometimes we lie; sometimes we just bend the facts a little. We say what we don't know yet assert it as fact. We speak impulsively and cause irreparable harm. We chatter aimlessly, suffocating our listeners with our prattle. We gossip and ruin reputations. We voice opinions, some of which may reveal how dark our hearts really are.

Before any election, we scrutinize the candidates to hear how their words confirm or betray their character. Of course when we talk, we give ourselves away too, despite our best intentions. That's why there's a law that says, "You have the right to remain silent." We might want to exercise that right more often.

The words we speak not only reveal us; they also have a way of deepening who we are. This shouldn't surprise us, as we confess our faith in an incarnate God, a word enfleshed. God takes on flesh, and becomes all the things that flesh is: fragile, hungry, in need of friendship, capable of bleeding and dying. But in Jesus, flesh also becomes all the things the divine word is: life-giving, truth-telling, soul-healing—not to mention, stronger than death and even than hell.

All of this might make us more mindful of the words we choose. When you and I speak bitterly as a matter of habit, we harden into cynics. When we think violent thoughts, it's only a matter of time before we indulge violent actions. Remember the story of My Fair Lady? In a class-conscious society, this girl who speaks with a low-class dialect is not considered a "lady" at the start of the story. But as she learns to overcome her dialect, the power of new speech transforms her. A new identity blooms in her and she becomes one with it. Words take on flesh—and flesh, words. God's word of love becomes the baby of Bethlehem. The stories Jesus tells of forgiveness become the man on the cross in Jerusalem.

Words become flesh as surely as a tree produces its fruit—good or rotten—with integrity to its inner nature. If we intend gentleness, we must use softer words. If we're unready within to produce loving speech just yet, then it is surely better to remain silent.

Wisdom & Works of Mercy Retreat Scheduled!

With humor and ease, Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, deftly unlocks the 'one thing,' the key to the Church's wisdom, and the greatest mystery of the Catholic faith: the Most Holy Trinity. What's more, it makes even what's familiar or forgotten new, exciting, and relevant.

Mondays starting Mar 11 for 10 weeks. Two sessions: 9:15 to 10:45 am or 7:00 to 8:30 pm. There is no charge for the retreat but participants need to order a "Wisdom & Works of Mercy Participant Packet" (with "The 'One Thing' is Three" book) by phone at (866) 767-3155 or online at <https://bit.ly/2DU2Mkv>. The cost is $39.95.
