FOOD AND FELLOWSHIP IN THE PARISH CENTER

Our Food and Fellowship events will be rescheduled when Sunday Masses resume.

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

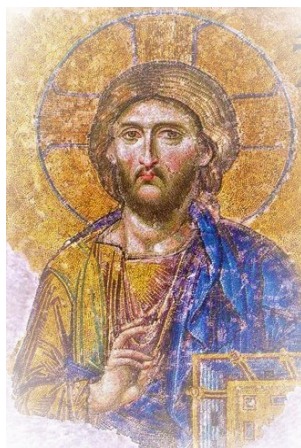

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will always include the use of incense.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the R.C.I.A. process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. Please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish webpage.

Called, Anointed and Empowered

The ritual is a strange one, as archaic rites tend to be when viewed from the distance of centuries and across cultures. An animal is sacrificed at the altar, and after much ceremony that is as precise as it is significant to the participants, a designated person steps forward to the presiding priest. The priest takes some of the blood of the animal and touches the person before him on the right ear, the right thumb, and the right great toe. Then after more ritual flourishes, the anointing with blood is followed by consecration with oil. Those participating in the ritual are hushed by what has happened before their eyes. The person anointed with blood and oil is a living testament to the power of God to transform the very nature of human beings.

What has happened to this person so consecrated? According to the Book of Leviticus, the one touched with oil and blood has just been purified from the sorry condition of leprosy. (This is what presumably takes place after Jesus dismisses the 10 lepers with the words, "Go show yourselves to the priest.") But here's the most peculiar part of all: The same ritual of blood marking the right ear, thumb, and toe along with the use of consecrated oils is prescribed in another part of Leviticus, in the ordination of Aaron and his sons to the holy priesthood. Cured of leprosy, or made a priest? How could the same ritual action predicate such wildly disparate results?

Of course, there are a few significant distinctions between the two rites. In the ordination ceremony, the priest-to-be gets a fabulous new set of clothes including a sash, tunic, and turban, while the leper gets his hair shaved off, down to the beard, eyebrows, "and any other hair he may have." Yikes.

Are all anointings created equal?

The present-day use of anointing in the sacramental work of the church bears consideration in light of this odd pairing of rites. We Catholics use the anointing of oil for ends that are equally diverse. There is the chrism of Baptism, Confirmation, and Ordination. There is the oil of catechumens and the oil used in time of sickness. Is this overlap of usage accidental or deliberate? Do the crossover purposes of anointing point to a lack of symbolic imagination, or is there a unity in these signs that bears closer scrutiny?

Another way to consider the matter is this: What do initiates, confirmands, the sick, and the priest have in common? Each testifies to the faith that sustains him or her in the present hour. Why join the church? Because I put my trust in the One who calls me forward to this membership. Why confirm the faith I have received? Because I claim for myself what has been handed on to me by the community of faith around me. Why be anointed in sickness? Because my fidelity in sickness is a witness to my confidence in the crucified Lord. Why accept the call to priesthood? Because serving the church draws others to the faith I have come to bet my life on.

In this sense, truly, all anointings are created equal, for they are all testimonies of faith offered for the sake of the whole church. Sometimes we may shortchange the witness of the sick person in seeing sacramental anointing as somehow private and off to the side of the others—as if there could be such a thing as a "private" or "personal" sacrament! The testimony of the person who is ill is one of the most profound and courageous gifts given to the church, as anyone who has been at a sickbed knows. In a death-denying culture such as ours, this gift deserves to be restored to its full dignity and prominence in our midst.

Anointed to God's purposes

The youngest son of Jesse is anointed by the oil in a prophet's horn to be king over Israel. Just a moment ago he was out tending sheep, an unglamorous occupation that signified his humble standing in a lineup of seven older brothers. Suddenly he appears transformed before them as the greatest of them all, called to a divine purpose none of them, not

Bishop Gilbert Chávez, a Revered Figure in the Hispanic Catholic Community, Dies

Retired Auxiliary Bishop Gilbert Chávez, who empowered Hispanic Catholics in San Diego for decades, has passed away. He was 87.

Bishop Chávez served the San Diego Diocese for 60 years, 46 of them as auxiliary bishop. During this era, the San Diego region's population grew rapidly, particularly among Hispanics. Bishop Chávez championed initiatives both at the diocese and in the broader U.S. Catholic Church to serve Latinos, particularly with Spanish-language ministry. He tirelessly encouraged parishioners to develop their spiritual formation and their leadership skills. He inspired generations of Latino Catholics to take leadership roles in their parishes, in their communities and in public life.

Bishop Chávez served in nine parishes, including his first assignment at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in Riverside in 1960, his first of two assignments in the Our Lady of Mount Carmel in San Ysidro in 1971, and as rector for 24 years at St. Joseph's Cathedral. He retired on June 1, 2007.

Bishop Chávez always attended celebrations of the faithful. In December of 2017, he attended the annual Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass at the Community Concourse, where he received a standing ovation to the chants of "¡Que Viva el Obispo Chávez!"

He was born Gilberto Espinoza Chávez on May 9, 1932, in Ontario, Ca., one of six children in a devoutly Catholic family that had emigrated from Mexico. After high school, he entered the seminary in San Diego and was ordained in 1960 by Bishop Charles F. Buddy. He served in various assignments across Southern California, including a four-year stint as chaplain at a state drug and rehabilitation center in Norco.

While working in the prison system, he decided to pursue a college degree from UC Riverside to better prepare him for challenges to come.

Pope Paul VI named him auxiliary bishop in 1974, only the second Hispanic bishop at the time in the nation. He served first with Bishop Leo T. Maher and later with Bishop Robert H. Brom, a total of 33 years.

Because of the necessity to avoid large crowds in order to suppress COVID-19, the funeral Mass for Bishop Chavez was private. He was buried in the family burial space located at Holy Cross Cemetery in Pomona. Once the COVID-19 strictures have ended, a grand fiesta Mass and reception for all of Bishop Chavez's many friends will be held at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in San Ysidro.

Annual Lenten Collection

This weekend Mar 21-22 has been designated for the special collection which supports the works of Catholic Relief Services, the Church in Africa and the Church in Latin America. Special envelopes are on the table in the church vestibule or donate online at olg-church.org. Please respond generously to this worthwhile collection.

Support Your Parish

Don't forget to continue to support your parish and parish school financially. Even though public celebration of the Eucharist has been suspended ministry at OLG is alive and parish life continues: the parish and school offices will remain open, operating expenses accrue, employees need to be paid, those who are hungry need to be helped by way of our Food Pantry, and more! Offertory envelopes or checks can be mailed to the parish office or, to make one-time or weekly, monthly or annual recurring gifts, online giving is available and is an excellent option. Donate through the Online Giving link at olg-church.org. Be sure use either a Chrome, Firefox or Edge browser.

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO 2020 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL BIWEEKLY BULLETIN UPDATE FOR OUR LADY OF GRACE CHURCH

March 22, 2020 — Report Number 2

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

God is the author of every blessing that we know in this world, every grace that brings joy to our heart, every strength and hope that carry us through the difficult times that come to all of us.

For this reason, the fundamental stance we as Catholics have toward our God is one of gratitude, and the fundamental disposition of the Christian moral life is to root every dimension of our journey of life on this earth in an abiding sense of thanksgiving.

Such a stance of gratitude orients our life of prayer and union with the Lord, understanding that God always stands with us. Gratitude enriches our life of family and friendship, of work and citizenship in this blessed land, and of encounter with those in need.

Christian gratitude also embraces our life of faith and membership in the Church, leading us to contribute our time, talent and financial resources to spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ in San Diego and Imperial Counties through our parishes and the work of the diocese that goes beyond the capabilities of any one parish. The diocese supports a vital array of ministries, vocations and charities in the name of Our Lord — through Catholic Schools, Religious Education Programs, Clergy and Seminarian Support and Catholic Charities.

Our Annual Appeal provides the foundation for enabling us to carry out these vital works of faith and service in your name, and for that reason I ask you to prayerfully consider participating generously in this year's appeal, with the knowledge that in doing so, you enter more fully into the work of Christ and the mission of discipleship at this crucial moment in human history.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Robert W. McElroy
 Bishop of San Diego

 YOUR NAME here?

This year's Appeal supports:

Catholic Schools • Catholic Charities • Formation in the Faith • Clergy & Seminarian Support

Remember, 100% of funds collected over our parish goal will be returned to the parish to fund overdue deferred maintenance and capital improvement projects. To make a gift or pledge, go to www.olg-church.org or pick up a special ACA packet in the main entry of the church. Thank you for your generosity! —Fr. Peter McGuine
