Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for

OUR LADY of GRACE!

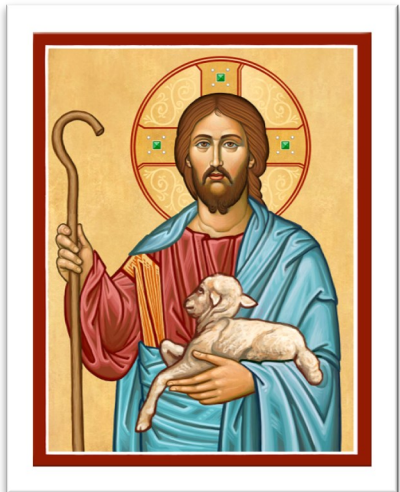

the celebration of the Eucharist X

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We offer ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact Deacon John Sawaya at: jsawaya@olg-church.org. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please also contact Deacon John Sawaya. You can also contact www.olg-church.org.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

GROW: Pay attention to the prominence of Mass. At Masses where the Solemn Entrance, reading proclaiming - into Jerusalem. During our regular Liturgy of read through the lengthy account of (this year, from the Gospel of Matthew). Following the reading of the passion a brief homily may be given, but there may also be a period of silence rather than a homily. In so many ways, it seems that beginning with Palm Sunday (and all throughout Holy Week), the Church is inviting us in a deeper way than perhaps at any other time in the liturgical year. As disciples, our whole Christian life must be nourished not only by the sacraments, but by the Word of God. As Lent comes to a close, we can think back to our Gospel of the First Sunday of Lent, where Jesus tells us on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of events we hear about during this time are the climactic moments in the unfolding plan of our salvation. By reading the invited to participate in them through this liturgy which makes them present to us, here and now.

GO: Letter to the Philippians speaks of love. Although he was God, Jesus took on our humanity and offered obedience to the Father, accepting, willfully, even death on a cross. When we consider our efforts to lead others to know adopt his own way of reaching out to humanity. Do we enter into the lived experience of those we seek to evangelize? In what ways do we empty ourselves in order to draw near to them? Are we willing to set aside our plans, our agenda, our way of doing things, and willingly accept doing things? Following the example of our Lord, our own efforts at evangelization should be marked by humility and self-emptying love.

STUDY: One of the best ways we can participate in the celebration of these sacred days is to spend time reading the Scriptures for each day of Holy Week. Read the text, then sit in silence, allowing the words to wash over you. What moments or lines stand out to you? As you re-read the Gospel of the words knowing that Jesus has done all of this for you.

Lenten Verse to Reflect On

"So submit yourselves to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you of two minds. Begin to lament, to mourn, to weep. Let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy into dejection. Humble yourselves before the Lord and he will exalt you."
