Welcome to Our Lady of Grace!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy.

The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents are welcome to make use of this chapel with restless children. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or feast day will always be incense-free.

Finance Council Opening

The Finance Council of the parish is established to assist the pastor in the administration of the temporal aspects of parish life, including our parish school. Meeting four to five times per year, members of this Council review and approve budgets and financial reports for both the church and school. In addition, the Council is responsible for advising staff on issues related to human resources, legal concerns, internal controls and procedures, risk management, and the stewardship of parish facilities. Any registered parishioners who are interested in serving on the Finance Council for a term of at least three years should contact Fr. Peter via letter or email (pmcguine@olg-church.org) no later than May 31 along with a brief listing of your qualifications. At this time, there is one position to be filled.

Is it OK to leave Mass after communion? No. It's really not.

by Victoria M. Tufano

No. It's really not. Because it's not just about us.

It's not OK to leave Thanksgiving dinner at Grandma's early because it's not just about eating good food, seeing the relatives once a year, and letting them see how big (or thin or old or pretty) you've become. It's about family, loving, and being loved even if—especially if—you and they are not perfect. It's about tradition, hearing the old stories and the new ones and adding yours; it's about recalling the past while the present surrounds you and the future lurks nearby. It's not OK to leave until the dessert and coffee and maybe an after-dinner drink because it's not just about you; it's about all of you as a family. So you stay until it's over, and you say goodbye with hugs and kisses and leave with a renewed understanding of what being part of this family means.

The Mass and Thanksgiving dinner have much in common, but the Mass is so much more. It is our celebration of the paschal mystery, the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ for the salvation of the world. We gather as God's family, the church, holy and imperfect, to hear again the story of how God has loved us and pursued us throughout history to this very day. In praying for the whole church and its needs, for the whole world, for those who suffer and those who die, we learn that we are to be mindful of them and to serve them. As we offer our thanks and praise for all God has done for us and given us, we come to recognize God's greatest gift to us, Jesus Christ, who feeds and strengthens us in the form of bread and wine, the body and blood he gave for the life of the world.

The Mass not only celebrates our faith, it teaches us what we believe and how we are to live. That is why we can't leave Mass after communion. Because communion is not just about us and our salvation. It's about the salvation of the world. In celebrating and receiving the Eucharist, "We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you come again." Who are we professing our faith to? Not just to ourselves but to the world. We become part of the story of how much God loves all people and wants them to know God through Christ.

If we leave Mass before the dismissal, we miss out on celebrating and being taught why we celebrate the Eucharist in the first place. We are fed and strengthened on the body and blood of Christ not only for ourselves but also for all those he gave his life for. We are dismissed from Mass not because it's over, but because we have work to do. We are to go to the world to proclaim Christ. And so we stay to the end of Mass to be blessed and commissioned: "Go and announce the gospel of the Lord." "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life."
