New links are added regularly so check often!

Mother's Day Mass Cards

A special Triduum of Masses will be celebrated at OLG on May 14-16 for mothers, living and deceased. Mass cards are available on the publications table in the main entry of the church. Completed envelopes may be returned to the parish by way of the US Mail or the black "drop box" located to the right of the front door to the parish office.

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will always include the use of incense.

Invitation to the R.C.I.A.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the R.C.I.A. process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. Please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish webpage.

GUEST COLUMNIST

ALICE CAMILLE

Enter, Rejoice, and Come In!

In the not-distant past, though it feels very distant indeed in this age of the pandemic, friends of mine were talking about a great shopping experience they had had (remember those?): what a haul they brought home, and at such amazing prices! When I tried to go to the store they had mentioned, however, I found that admission came at a price: You had to have a club card to get in the door.

So it was with the yoga classes offered at the golf course (membership required), dinner at the exclusive restaurant (tie, tails, and connections not optional), and lots of other places where entrance was somewhat restricted or selective. This may be a free country, but in certain situations you simply have to belong to a group in order to gain admittance.

This is not always an unreasonable expectation: Do you want people to walk in off the street and into your book club gathering? Should just anyone be able to crash your birthday party or wedding? If you sat down to dinner tonight at your kitchen table and a stranger was sitting across from you, would that be all right with you?

Even within the church, which is in many significant ways an open society by design, full membership is by no means arbitrary, and those who belong have to undergo an admission process that may entail connections (family of birth), distinct dress

(baptismal robe), application and scrutiny to ensure eligibility (RCIA), and even some monetary contribution (the ever-loving collection basket). When the Jerusalem crowd asked Peter and the disciples plaintively, "What are we to do, my brothers?" they understood that salvation would require something from them in return. Peter's answer was point-blank: "Repent and be baptized."

Getting through the gate

In the past few weeks, the gospels have invited us to consider how Jesus can be touched (even in the age of social distancing) and how he can be recognized by those who are his disciples. This week, we see that Jesus can also be entered: There is a "Christ experience" available for those who believe. Baptism is the fundamental ritual expression of entrance into the Body of Christ, of course. But as every RCIA director and presider at infant Baptisms knows, getting doused with holy water and the right ritual words isn't what it's all about. The exterior sign must be accompanied by an interior transformation. Peter knew that, too, which is why he didn't say to the crowds in Jerusalem that day, "Line up and get baptized!"

Repentance is the jump-start to the Christ experience: It's what Thomas meant by falling on his knees two weeks ago and crying, "My Lord and my God!" It's what the Emmaus travelers felt when the stranger they've been with all day tears apart the bread and they realize, "Oh my God, Jesus is risen!" Membership in the church is as useless as a club card that's stuffed in your wallet unless you also enter into the experience of Christ. Once you pass through that gate, now you've arrived.

Another day, another entry

Jesus presents himself as the ultimate point of entry twice in the gospels: here in John, when he calls himself the "gate," and again in Matthew, when he admits sheep and not goats into Kingdom Come. Admission to the Kingdom is revealed to be a pay-as-you-go affair. Those who shared their food with the hungry, welcomed the stranger, clothed the needy, visited the sick and imprisoned all along the way can now walk right in with no further ado. Those who have not paid these simple dues along the way, alas, are no longer eligible for admittance at any price. It is noteworthy that Jesus never adds, "Been baptized?" to the list of requirements for admission. Baptism is the ritual sign of the transformed life, but it cannot stand in lieu of that all-important transformation. Without a converted heart, we're still parked at the gate.

Entering Christ is a total immersion into new and abundant life: As Saint

Paul says, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me." Ask the 3,000 who were baptized the day they heard Peter's message in the street. On one side of the Christ gate, they were Parthians, Medes, Mesopotamians, and God-knows-what-else. Once through the gate, they were the Body of Christ, rescued from a corrupt generation, beneficiaries of the promises of God and the forgiveness of sin. Before they were scattered sheep, wandering unprotected and without direction. Once inside the pasture of Christ, they are safe, well nourished, and at liberty to come and go as never before. The thief who steals and slaughters and destroys cannot reach them here. Entering Christ, they know peace for the first time.

A Sunday for good shepherds

We celebrate this day as Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus is not only the one whose body we can touch in the community of faith, recognize in our communion with one another, and enter through heartfelt union with the life of Christ; he is also the one whose call leads us forward as the true shepherd herd of the sheep. His voice is familiar and trustworthy, like the voices of those who have spoken words of encouragement, love, and faithfulness all along our way. These parents, teachers, spiritual leaders, and mentors have brought us up in the faith, and in their good words and example we first recognize the voice of Christ guiding us to wholeness and holiness. We might take this opportunity to thank these folks today—with a phone call or e-mail—for being faithful to their own experience of Christ.

In the same way, we might consider in whose lives we may be playing the role of shepherd today, consciously or not. Do our words and example lead family members, neighbors, and friends to the heart of Christ? Might they be attracted through their relationship with us to enter the Gate and belong to Christ themselves? The goal is never to be overtly pious or moralistic, which tends to have the opposite effect of what we intend. When we have entered the Christ experience ourselves—joyful in the assembly, conscious of humanity's deep communion, the ready hope of those in need—we leave the gate open for others to arrive.

A Little Humor

Two elderly ladies had been friends for many decades. Over the years they had shared all kinds of activities and adventures. Lately, their activities had been limited to meeting a few times a week to play cards.

One day, they were playing cards when one looked at the other and said, "Now don't get mad at me... I know we've been friends a long time, but I just can't think of your name. I've thought and thought, but I can't remember it. Please tell me what your name is."

Her friend stared at her. For at least 3 minutes she just stared.

Finally, she said, "How soon do you need to know?"

God's Work in

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO 2020 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL BIWEEKLY BULLETIN UPDATE FOR OUR LADY OF GRACE CHURCH

May 3, 2020 — Report Number 5

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

God is the author of every blessing that we know in this world, every grace that brings joy to our heart, every strength and hope that carry us through the difficult times that come to all of us.

For this reason, the fundamental stance we as Catholics have toward our God is one of gratitude, and the fundamental disposition of the Christian moral life is to root every dimension of our journey of life on this earth in an abiding sense of thanksgiving.

Such a stance of gratitude orients our life of prayer and union with the Lord, understanding that God always stands with us. Gratitude enriches our life of family and friendship, of work and citizenship in this blessed land, and of encounter with those in need.

Christian gratitude also embraces our life of faith and membership in the Church, leading us to contribute our time, talent and financial resources to spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ in San Diego and Imperial Counties through our parishes and the work of the diocese that goes beyond the capabilities of any one parish. The diocese supports a vital array of ministries, vocations and charities in the name of Our Lord — through Catholic Schools, Religious Education Programs, Clergy and Seminarian Support and Catholic Charities.

Our Annual Appeal provides the foundation for enabling us to carry out these vital works of faith and service in your name, and for that reason I ask you to prayerfully consider participating generously in this year's appeal, with the knowledge that in doing so, you enter more fully into the work of Christ and the mission of discipleship at this crucial moment in human history.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Robert W. McElroy
 Bishop of San Diego
