Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

W elcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We offer ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact Deacon John Sawaya at: jsawaya@olg-church.org. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please also contact Deacon John Sawaya. You can also contact him by using the "Contact us" link at olg-church.org.

Allergies

The first morning Mass of a holy day will always be incense-free.

Third Sunday of Easter

GROW: Underlying Peter's simple statement in today's Gospel, "I am going fishing," is an ocean of sadness. This leader of the Apostles was once so eager and self-assured that he declared to Jesus, "Even though I should have to die with you, I will not deny you." (Mt 26:35) But we know the story: At the decisive moment, Peter yielded under pressure and three times denied that he even knew Jesus. Now, after witnessing his Master's arrest and execution, Peter, whom Jesus called to leave his nets to be a fisher of men (see Mt 4:19), returns to his old profession. And even there he sustains another failure: he can't catch any fish! Swimming to shore, the ever-impulsive Apostle discovers that Jesus had already procured fish for breakfast without his help. Imagine Peter's consternation: my vocation as an Apostle, my career as a fisherman, my professed willingness to die for the Lord – everything I thought I could hang my hat on – were pretense and illusion.

GO: In our relationship with God, we are at times beset by the reality of our own weaknesses and apparent failures. But for Peter as for us, despondency does not have to have the final word. In one of the most intimate exchanges in the Gospels, Jesus heals Peter's self-inflicted wound. "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" the Lord asks three times. What Jesus desires from the Apostle is not eloquent declarations of courage; he wants Peter's love; he wants his heart: conscious of its frailty and humble enough to be led where it does not want to go. Neither Peter's day job nor his grandiose spiritual aspirations are useful to the Lord if Peter has not first surrendered himself to God. This is because only a heart which belongs to God and draws its strength from him can bear fruit for the kingdom of heaven. Such is likewise true for us, often so anxious about tomorrow or preoccupied with our attempts to "earn" God's love.

Our primary responsibility, without which none of our other labors will be fruitful, is to give our hearts completely to him.

PRAY:

Repetition is the mother of learning. Three times, Jesus asked Peter to renew his love – perhaps, in part, to convince Peter! This week, offer your heart to God as soon as you get up in the morning. You could even use Peter's words: "Lord, you know that I love you." By making this a habit, you invite God's grace and strength to make each day's actions fruitful.

IT'S STILL EASTER.

You won't find Easter candy or decorations for sale at the supermarket much past Easter Sunday. While the secular world moves on from bunnies and chocolate, the Church continues to celebrate Easter long after the final ham leftovers are eaten. The Easter season is the second-longest liturgical season. Only ordinary time is longer. The Church celebrates the Easter season (also known as "Eastertide") for 50 days, culminating with the feast of Pentecost on June 8th this year, where Scripture (Acts 2:1-31) tells us that the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles.

Thank you and updates on our New Life High School Ministry!

Thank you to all of the Parishioners for your generosity in donating shoes for the New Life High School Deanery Service Project, and for monetary donations that assisted in buying over 20 pairs of work boots. A total of 257 pairs of shoes, a large box of socks, and footcare items were delivered to El Cajon Transitional Living Center. Thanks to the Catholic Women's Club for joining our efforts to shop, and decorate their boxes. As a Deanery, St. Martin's Youth collected 300 pairs of jeans from their parishioners, and St. Kieran's Youth collected towels, sunscreen and personal care items. We met at St. Kieran's to sort shoes, tie them together and add notes of encouragement and blessing for those receiving them. We also listened to a guest speaker and watched videos to learn more about the outreach for those facing homelessness. The Center was overwhelmed with everyone's generosity. God Bless all of you who help us make a difference in over 450 people's lives who are living at the Center.

For a Lenten Project the High School New Life Youth Group had a Pro-Life night with special speakers, Elena and Emily Ruta, sharing about their ministry at OLG. Their support of Culture of Life, 40 Days for Life and the Life Walk is at the center of their outreach. The Youth donated new baby items from clothing, to blankets, bibs, bottles and more. The Youth enjoyed some good old fashion baby shower games, and we found out how competitive they are. It was a wonderful night and ended with cake and food. East County Pregnancy Center located in Santee, was so thrilled to have so many donations, and they loved that they were wrapped in gift bags.

A special Mother's Day Novena will be offered at OLG for all mothers, living and deceased, on May 12-17 & May 19-21. Mass cards are available on the information table at the entrance of the Church.

Completed envelopes may be returned to the Parish by way of the collection basket, US Mail, or dropped off at the Parish Office. The best gift you can give your mother is your loving prayers! Mass cards must be submitted by Friday, May 9.
