Public Mass Update

Masses are celebrated outside in front of the church. Bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on. Face coverings are required, as is physical distancing. Bottled water, hats, hand sanitizer, and sunscreen are recommended. In extreme heat Masses will be moved inside. Our Ambassadors will be present to assist you. For more info, visit olg-church.org and read the red NOTICE under the Weekly Liturgy Schedule headline.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays continues to be dispensed by Bishop McElroy.

Streamed Online Mass Information Available

On the parish website we have listed multiple links to options to participate in Sunday and daily Mass online in the Diocese of San Diego and beyond. Visit olg-church.org homepage and click on the gold "Online Mass Info and Other Sustaining Faith Resources in the Time of Pandemic" button. Scroll to listed Mass links.

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will often include the use of incense.

Invitation to the R.C.I.A.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the R.C.I.A. process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. Please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish webpage.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mass Readings:

Wis 6:12-16

1 Thes 4:13-18

Mt 25:1-13

GROW: Google is a mixed blessing for me. One time, it helped me figure out I had a medical emergency and needed to get to the ER pronto! But a glance at my search history reveals that 99 out of 100 times that I'm searching for wisdom of some sort, I'm searching for things like "meatless Monday recipes," "best long-run shoes," or "living room paint colors" (plus 12 variations on each theme). This recognition came to mind when I listened to the words of our first reading. "She [Wisdom] is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her." Hearing this reminds me to spend less time Googling and more time searching for what really matters – God's love, goodness, and wisdom. The Gospel story of the virgins keeping vigil for the bridegroom expands on this, for it is the wise who are most prepared to sustain their watch.

GO: Like many people, I have a bookshelf full of self-help books – guides to parenting, figuring out the color of my parachute, various diets, the magic of "tidying up." Today's readings have me wondering whether these well-meaning efforts to become "the best version of myself," or plumb the meaning of life, miss the point. After all, as today's readings remind us, the source of all wisdom is right before us, in the person of Jesus. We don't have to have all the answers, we just need to know where to look, and to have the patience and wherewithal to be prepared to receive it. By studying the Scripture and opening our eyes to the presence of God in others and even in the challenges we face, we can grow closer to Jesus and be ready to meet the bridegroom when he comes.

REFLECT: Read and pray today's responsorial psalm. (Ps 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8)

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts
like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

Just One More Donation Week - Holiday Angels

Help East County families and seniors in need of special meals during the Christmas season. From your donations of $100, $200, $300 or any amount grocery gift cards will be purchased for Holiday Angel families. Any excess funds—after all have enough to eat—will be provided to parents in the form of gift cards to purchase gifts for their children. Please use the online giving link at olg-church.org or place an envelope with your check in the donation basket – be sure to designate your gift as “Holiday Angel Program”. Christmas donations will be accepted through Sun, Nov 15. On behalf of the families and seniors now being served, thank you OLG faith family for your enduring generosity! If you have questions, please contact Angel

A Little Humor

A five year old was having her lunch while her mother was trying to coax some ketchup out of a bottle by hitting it on the bottom with her hand.

The phone rang and the mother said “Honey, please answer the phone.”

The little girl said, “Hello... oh no; my mommy can’t come to the phone now because she’s hitting the bottle!”

A Senior was heard to say - “I am so old that when I was young the Dead Sea was just Sick!”

Question: What Does the Church Say About Suicide?Answer:

Unfortunately, despite the Church’s clear teachings in resources like the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, there are still many people who are confused about what the Church teaches regarding the tragic reality of suicide. While we hold that all life is sacred, we are also all too aware that the psychological, emotional and even physical illness - as well as extreme anxiety, fear, and abuse - can lead individuals to take their own lives. Speaking to this, the United State Catholic Catechism for Adults reflects, “Although suicide is always objectively sinful, one should not despair of the eternal salvation of persons who have taken their own lives. By ways known to him alone, God can provide the opportunity for salutary repentance. The Church prays for persons who have taken their own lives” (pg. 294). The text also states the reality of illness or other extreme influences can diminish the responsibility of one committing suicide” (pg. 293).

Parishes and grief support groups should show special care and concern for those families that have lost a loved one to suicide. And, communities should always try to be mindful of those who might be at risk of suicide or self harm.

Mental Health Resources from our Diocese

The “Mental Health” webpage of the Office for Family Life & Spirituality at the Diocese of San Diego offers a comprehensive list of links to help with many mental health challenges.

The webpage provides links to sites that provide face-to-face online therapy sessions with licensed psychologists, social workers and other mental health disciplines with a wide variety of specialties.

Additional resources include a Crisis Text Line and links to local Affiliated Groups to help with overcoming depression, post-abortion healing, survivors of suicide loss and more.

Also, a list of therapists for referral is available by calling (858) 490-8299.

To access these resources visit olg-church.org then click on the image shown above.

YOUTH MINISTRY AND FORMATION

Visit olg-church.org to get Jr. High and/or High School event details. Click "Serve" then "Parish Groups" and under "Youth Groups" choose ESCAPE (Jr. High) or New Life (High School).

'ESCAPE' Jr. High Youth Ministry Service: Box of Joy - Fri, Nov 13 - 6:00 to 8:00 pm

Bring joy to a child in a foreign country! Parents take their Jr. High student shopping for items to fill a shoe box from 6:00 to 6:30 pm at the 99 Cent Stores at 2320 Fletcher Pkwy, El Cajon, 92020. Then meet in the courtyard in front of the Catechetical Ministry Office to watch a short video about the impact their gift will have on the lives of children in developing nations and to wrap the boxes. Masks and social distancing required. RSVP appreciated. To learn about what goes into the box visit the ESCAPE page of our website (see above.)

Socktober Results

Last month New Life High School teens joined the Socktober national effort to collect and donate socks to children served by East Country Transitional Living. Ninety-nine pairs of socks were donated through this Corporal Work of Mercy.

Explorer Day—Is God Calling?

On Sat, Nov 14, the Diocese of San Diego is hosting an Explorer Day for those men who are interested in exploring a possible vocation to the priesthood. The day will be held at St. Francis Center on the campus of the University of San Diego from 8:30 am to 3:30 pm. If living a life of service for Christ and the people of God is attractive to you, take advantage of the opportunity to attend this upcoming Explorer Day.

Contact Fr. Peter at (619) 469-0133 or call Fr. Lauro Minimo, Vocation Director, at (619) 291-7446. See sdcatholic.org/diocese/clergy/vocations/ for more info.

Catholic Wills and Trust Webinars

The Catholic Community Foundation of San Diego is hosting free webinars led by local estate planning attorneys throughout San Diego and Imperial Counties. These professionals are not looking for clients but rather offer free help. Choose one webinar from five date/time options, Nov 9-13. Information at each webinar is the same - only the presenter changes. Protect and provide for your loved ones through proper planning. To register go to CCFSD.org/events. Spanish options are also available.

Gift Card Drive for Survivors of Human Trafficking

The Order of Malta is sponsoring a gift card drive through Nov 22 in support of Children of the Immaculate Heart (CIH). A Catholic apostolate founded in 2013, CIH works to help heal all those young and old coming out of the life of sex trafficking. Please consider supporting this worthy cause with a gift card or two valued at $25-$50 to Walmart, Ross, Arco Gasoline, Food-4-Less, T.J. Maxx, etc. Cards can be mailed to: Children of the Immaculate Heart, P.O. Box 13954, San Diego 92170. Call Valerie at (714) 651-7075 for more info. Thank you for your support.

Welcome Deacon Daniel Holgren!

My name is Daniel Holgren and I just finished my third year of theology at the North American College in Rome. I am 35 years old and was born and raised in San Diego. I'm very close to my family and have an older brother and a younger sister. My dad is a permanent deacon and my mother is a nurse, so it is kind of amusing to me that I ended up pursuing both of those fields at one time or another. I graduated from Rancho Bernardo High School in 2003 and then went on to receive my bachelor's degree from Cal State San Marcos in Kinesiology. After that I began helping people by working as an EMT/paramedic in the 911 system for six years. I have always wanted to help people, so my jobs have always been in some type of service role. God used that, along with my openness, to guide me into the seminary and to serve his Church. I was ordained a deacon Oct 2, 2020 and, God willing, I will be ordained a priest in June 2021.

Deacon Holgren will be serving OLG primarily on weekends as he continues online classes at the Gregorian University in Rome.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

DORA KING

*May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God,
rest in peace. Amen.*
