Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here!

The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We invite you to enrich your life through joining our parish family. In addition to our liturgies there are many ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer life-long learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact Deacon John Sawaya at: jsawaya@olg-church.org. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please also contact Deacon John Sawaya. You can also contact him by using the “Contact us” link at olg-church.org.

Allergies

The first morning Mass of a holy day will always be incense -free.

Mindfulness of Others

Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy to avoid distracting those around you.

September is the Month of Our Lady of Sorrows

It is good to think about the seven sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who freely accepted her calling to be the Mother of God and our mother, Pope Francis said during his daily Mass on Friday.

Offering Mass in the chapel of the Casa Santa Marta April 3, he said: "Today it will do us good to stop a little and think about the pain and sorrows of Our Lady. She is our mother."

The Friday before Palm Sunday is sometimes called the Friday of Sorrows in remembrance of the seven sorrows of the Virgin Mary.

"And how she bore [the sorrows], how she bore them well, with strength, with tears: it was not a false distress, it was just the heart destroyed by grief," Francis explained.

He spoke about the veneration of Our Lady of Sorrows, listing her "seven sorrows."

"The first, just 40 days after the birth of Jesus, is the prophecy of Simeon, who speaks of a sword that will pierce her heart," he explained.

The second sorrow of Mary is the flight into Egypt; the third is the three days of anguish when the child Jesus was in the temple, lost to her and St. Joseph. Meeting Jesus on his way to Calvary is the fourth sorrow. "The fifth sorrow of Our Lady is the death of Jesus, to see her Son there, crucified, naked, who dies," the pope said.

The sixth sorrow is the removal of Jesus' dead body from the cross, "and she takes him in her hands as she had taken him in her hands more than 30 years earlier in Bethlehem," Francis reflected.

The seventh sorrow is Jesus' burial. "And so, Christian piety follows this path of the Madonna who accompanies Jesus," he said.

"It will do us good to stop a little and say to Our Lady: 'Thank you for accepting to be Mother when the angel told you and thank you for accepting to be Mother when Jesus told you.'"

He encouraged Catholics to honor the Virgin Mary as their mother, noting that Jesus himself gave her that role.

Jesus "did not make her prime minister or give her titles of 'function,'" he said. "Only 'Mother.' According to Francis, Mary accepted the title and duties of being our mother but did not take any titles for herself.

"She did not ask herself to be a quasi-redeemer or a co-redeemer: no. The Redeemer is one and this title does not double," he said.

The pope added that "in the motherhood of Our Lady we see the motherhood of the Church which receives everyone, good and bad: everyone."

PRAYER BEFORE THE CRUCIFIX

Look down upon me, good and gentle Jesus while before Your face I humbly kneel and, with burning soul, pray and beseech You, to fix deep in my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity; true contrition for my sins, and a firm purpose of amendment.

While I contemplate, with great love and tender pity, Your five most precious wounds, pondering over them within me and calling to mind the words which David, Your prophet, said to You, my Jesus: "They have pierced My hands and My feet, they have numbered all My bones." Amen.

BROTHERS OF THE SACRED HEART

The special collection this weekend (September 9 & 10) is for the missions of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart. The Brothers, who staff schools and other establishments in over thirty countries, are asking for your prayers and financial assistance. Your contributions will benefit schools and needy students in Kenya, Lesotho, Mozambique, Uganda, Zambia, Zimbabwe and the Philippines. We appreciate your prayers and generosity! For more info, please contact Br. Henry at: (504) 957-9882.

2023 Catholic Answers National Conference

I BELIEVE IN GOD

Join some of the nation's most brilliant, eloquent, and engaging Catholic speakers as they share how to engage with charity atheists, agnostics, and most troubling, the growing number of people who just do not care.

Answering atheists, agnostics, and the just plain indifferent in an age of unbelief.

In the last decade, the percentage of Americans calling themselves Christians fell from 77% to 65%, while the unaffiliated rose from 17% to 26%. This rapid growth of unbelief shows no sign of stopping and is, without question, the most serious threat to the Catholic faith, to say nothing of the salvation of souls. It is this threat to which we turn our attention at the 2023 conference.

St. John Chrysostom, pray for us!

“Have you sinned? Come to Church. Tell God, ‘I have sinned.’ I do not demand anything else of you than this. Holy Scripture states, ‘Be the first one to tell of your transgressions, so you may be justified.’ Admit the sin to annul it. This requires neither labor nor a circuit of words, nor monetary expenditure, nor anything else whatsoever such as these. Say one word, think carefully about the sin and say, ‘I have sinned.’ -St. John Chrysostom

Bethlehem

ARTWORKS

SEPTEMBER 16-17

Beautiful hand-made olive wood religious articles made by Catholic families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem will be on sale the weekend of September 16-17 after all the Masses. Bethlehem Artworks is an organization that aids over 100 plus suffering families each week. Please stop by our tables and look at our beautiful handmade rosaries, statues, crosses, and nativities. They will make a wonderful gift for family and friends and will be a great inspirational addition to your homes! These religious articles are made by the suffering Christian families in the Holy Land in order to spread the word of Jesus Christ, a goal that began two thousand years ago. Unfortunately, the Christian population in the Holy Land has dropped from over 20% to under 1%. Crafting these religious articles is the primary means for supporting the livelihood of our Christian brothers and sisters living in the Holy Land. For more information, please visit:
