We love having you as part of our flock! Get updates about Masses and parish life via email or text! Sign up! Visit olg-church.org and look for the blue and white sheep.

Public Mass Update

Masses are celebrated outside in front of the church. Bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on. Face coverings are required, as is physical distancing. Bottled water, hats, hand sanitizer, and sunscreen are recommended. Our Ambassadors will be present to assist you. For more info, visit olg-church.org and read the red NOTICE under the Weekly Liturgy Schedule headline.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays continues to be dispensed by Bishop McElroy.

Masses are being Streamed Online

On the parish website we have listed multiple links to options to participate in Sunday and daily Mass online in the Diocese of San Diego and beyond. Visit olg-church.org homepage and click on the gold "Online Mass Info and Other Sustaining Faith Resources in the Time of Pandemic" button. Scroll to listed Mass links.

All OLG Campus offices will be closed on Mon, Sep 7, for Labor Day and the 6:00 pm confessions are canceled.

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents with restless children are welcome to make use of this chapel at any time during Mass should it be necessary. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or holy day will always be incense-free. The Sunday 11:00 am Mass will often include the use of incense.

Invitation to the R.C.I.A.

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the R.C.I.A. process and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. Please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079 or use the "Contact us" link on the parish webpage.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mass Readings:

Ez 33:7-9

Rom 13:8-10

Mt 18:15-20

GROW: Pop quiz: What's the Seventh Commandment? Can you recite the other nine? At first glance, Paul's Letter to the Romans seems like an easy out. The commandments, he writes, "are summed up in this saying, namely, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" Easy-peasy, right? Well, in this case the devil is not in the details, but in the totality. Most days, loving one's neighbor as yourself is harder than following the letter of the law. It means putting others first in a culture where rugged individualism is rewarded. In an everyday way, it means letting the person with four items and 23 coupons go in front of us at the grocery store, listening with an open mind to those with whom we disagree, or driving our parent to the doctor's office on a day we had hoped to attend our daughter's basketball game. When those situations come up, we know we don't have to go it alone. After all, God loved us first. As we move into the week ahead, we can ask God in prayer to open our hearts and minds to the needs of others, and help us love better by serving them, even when it's hard.

GO: Who doesn't love a romantic comedy? (Well, I can name four men of varying ages in my household.) Paul might have been one of them. His Letter to the Romans is more head than heart, grounded in rock-solid logic: "Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law." The line reminds me of one of the most famous tenets of the Hippocratic Oath: "First, do no harm." Surely, on some days, "doing no evil" or "doing no harm" may feel like enough. But as Christians, we can do so much more. I'm reminded of a generous couple who would pray together each morning asking God to show them how they could best help others. They understood the message of today's Gospel, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Knowing that Jesus was at their side, they prepared to face whatever the day brought them. Is there someone this week you can accompany on their faith journey, or invite to join you in Christian service?

PRAY: By starting the day with a simple prayer like this: "God, show me how I can serve others today," or "God, open my heart to the needs around me," we may be pleasantly surprised at the opportunities to grow in love that we encounter.

Are Catholics Allowed to Donate Their Organs?

Yes, Catholics are allowed to donate their organs. In fact, the Catechism of the Catholic Church praises this practice when it notes that, “Organ donation after death is a noble and meritorious act and is to be encouraged as an expression of generous solidarity” (no. 2296).

The Church has a series of guidelines for health care providers called The Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Services. This document helps us see organ donation as an act of charity, but it also reminds us that we have to be sure that donations of organs by living donors do not “sacrifice or seriously impair any essential bodily function and the anticipated benefit to the recipient is proportionate to the harm to the donor” (no. 30); trained medical professionals can help to make this assessment. In the case of organ donation at the end of life, we must be sure of the intentions of the donor or of their proxy are always respected, and that the dignity of the human body is always respected.

In the end, we look to Pope Saint John Paul II and his encyclical Evangelium Vitae, where noted that organ donation is a beautiful act of expressing the culture of life, when “performed in an ethically acceptable manner, with a view to offering a chance of health or even of life itself to the sick who sometimes have no other hope” (no.86).

Saint Teresa of Kolkata

1910-1997 ~ Feast Day: September 7

Raised in a deeply Catholic family in Albania, Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu joined the Sisters of Loreto in 1928 and took the name Teresa. The community sent her to Kolkata, India, where she taught children for two decades. In 1946 Teresa heard God’s call to quench the thirst of Jesus by caring for the poorest of the poor. She left the Sisters of Loreto to rescue the sick and destitute in the slums of Kolkata — one at a time. Many volunteers soon joined her and she formed them into her religious order, the Missionaries of Charity. Teresa’s manifest goodness and her unique media savvy attracted global attention, drawing many people to God. Many regard her as the greatest Catholic evangelist of the 20th century. She was beatified in 2003 and canonized in 2016.

Walking With Purpose Bible Study

The mission of Walking With Purpose is to help every Catholic woman and girl in America open her heart to Jesus Christ! With that goal in mind, two weekly group meetings are starting Wed, Sep 30, on Zoom at 6:30 pm until church facilities can be used for gathering.

Beginners start with Keeping in Balance, a journey through Scripture discovering the relevance of Old and New Testament wisdom for daily challenges. This 22-lesson study explores Biblical ideas for managing life’s pace and pressure while living with calm and steadiness. Your lifestyle of health and holiness awaits!

Advancing members will enjoy Touching the Divine which focus’ on the many qualities of Jesus revealed through the Gospel of John. This study draws us into a deeper, loving relationship with Jesus as we reflect on His life and personality.

To find out more, use the Contact Us link at olg-church.org and select “Walking with Purpose” or call Danica at (951) 858-6568. To learn more about the national organization visit walkingwithpurpose.com.

FROM the PASTOR

VERY REV. PETER M. MCGUINE

Dear Parishioners,

The end of summer and recent changes announced by the County of San Diego and Bishop McElroy afford me a good opportunity to write and keep you abreast of developments at OLG parish.

As many of you may already know, due to a sustained decrease in new coronavirus infections, the County is now permitting many activities and business operations to take place once again inside buildings, but with restrictions. In the case of places of worship, capacity at any worship service is limited to 25% of building occupancy or 100 persons, whichever is less. Bishop McElroy is leaving it to each parish to decide to move Masses inside or keep them outside. Because we have had good success with celebrating the Eucharist outside, there are no “capacity” limits, singing is permitted, and our average weekend Mass attendance is 148 people (Aug 29 & 30), I have decided to keep both daily and weekend Masses outside for the time being, weather permitting, of course. Funerals, weddings, baptisms, and confessions, however, will all be celebrated inside the church.

On a different note, I take this opportunity to address issues related to finances. From the middle of March until now, our parish has been able to maintain traditional levels of staffing and services. The federal government’s Payroll Protection Program (PPP) was a tremendous help to both our parish (and school) in this regard. An overall decrease in parishioner support (principally, weekly collection dollars), however, dictates that we must cut expenses. With no additional outside funding assistance anticipated for small businesses and a return to pre-COVID-19 existence still a few months off, the Parish Finance Council approved a plan on Aug 27 that provides for employee furloughs (temporary reduction in hours) and closes the parish office on Fridays. In addition, to allow for a single day off each week for myself as well as all our volunteers, I have decided to suspend the Friday morning Mass as of Sept 11. My hope is that those who attend Mass on Fridays will be able to do so at a neighboring parish. Staff furlough and the Friday office closure will remain in place until our collection levels are once again able to support our usual staffing and ministry levels.

Finally, Monday is Labor Day. Traditionally, we take this day to remember the rights and dignity of the human person as well as the blessing of work itself. This year, the pandemic has certainly taken its toll on businesses, workers, families, and communities. None of these are untouched, and some have unfortunately been touched more than others. Please join me – sometime over the long weekend – in praying the rosary alone or with others for those who search for meaningful work in order that they may provide for themselves and their loved ones.

St. Joseph, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and patron saint of workers, pray for us!

Fr. Peter

“The current pandemic has highlighted our interdependence: we are all linked to each other, for better or for worse. Therefore, to come out of this crisis better than before, we have to do so together, all of us, in solidarity.”

~ Pope Francis, @Pontifex, Sep 2, 2020
