The parish and school offices will be closed Mon, Sep 3 in observance of Labor Day. Daily Mass will be celebrated at 9:00 am.

Welcome to OUR LADY of GRACE!

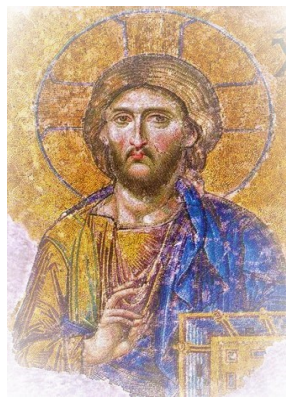

Welcome to all who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist. There are many ways and parish organizations to participate in our life in Christ. See the directory on page 7.

We invite all who attend OLG to become registered members of our parish. Registration forms are available on the table in the main entry of the church or the parish office. Registration allows us to communicate and effectively provide for your needs. It is necessary for baptism, marriage, and godparent or sponsor certification.

Mindfulness of Others—Please silence all devices and refrain from using them during the liturgy. The parish has a Children's Chapel located in the northwest corner of the church. Parents are welcome to make use of this chapel with restless children. We ask that this chapel, like the church itself, remain free of food and drink.

Allergies—The first morning Mass of the Sunday or feast day will always be incense-free.

Invitation to the RCIA

Our Lady of Grace Parish welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community shares and celebrates this journey with them through a process called "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." If you are curious about what Catholics believe and may be interested in learning more about joining the Catholic faith—or perhaps you are an adult Catholic looking to be fully initiated—you are cordially invited to enter the RCIA process this Fall and experience a new and enriched meaning to your life through renewed faith and love. For more information, please contact Deacon John Sawaya at (858) 869-5079.

FROM the PASTOR

VERY REV. PETER MCGUINE

Dear Parishioners,

The letter on page 4 from Bishop McElroy addresses the scandal of the sexual abuse of minors in the Catholic Church. In his letter, our bishop asks for your prayers and invites you to attend one of eight town hall meetings he will be hosting throughout the diocese in October. The gathering for the El Cajon Deanery will take place here at OLG. Dates are being determined and will be announced in the coming weeks.

Here at OLG, as a way for us to pray together for victims of abuse and for true reform of the Church in this regard, we will be “fasting” from the usual concluding hymn at all Masses and imploring the intercession of our Blessed Mother to lead us back to Jesus and keep our eyes and hearts focused on him lest we lose hope. Consequently, beginning with this weekend, all Masses through the end of the liturgical year will end with the singing of the seasonal Marian antiphon, Salve, Regina.

Speaking of music, I am pleased to announce the appointment of a new Director of Liturgical Music for our parish. After an extensive nation-wide search, Paul Thomas May has been hired to take the lead in our music program starting Sept 5. A bio for Paul is found below. I am grateful for the work and ministry of Colin Barkley. Concluding his position with us as Interim Director of Liturgical Music on Sept 7, Colin seamlessly stepped in where Br. Kevin McGoff, OFM, left off last December. Colin provided steady leadership in the music department for eight months and, for the foreseeable future, plans to continue as a cantor for our parish and section leader for our Gaudete Choir (Sun, 11:00 am).

Our Lady of Grace, Mother of the Church, pray for us!

Fr. Peter McGuine

Conductor and baritone Paul Thomas May is a stalwart vocalist and devoted church musician native to San Diego. Mr. May served as the Director of Music for St. Rocco Parish, the first and oldest Italian Parish in Cleveland, OH, for the 2017-18 academic year, coordinating all liturgies and teaching music for the entire parish school. He is the former Director of Liturgical Music at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, San Diego, where he was responsible for Sat and Sun morning Masses directing the OLMC Liturgical Choir (50+ voices) and Schola (20 Voices). Mr. May previously held the position of Bass Choral Scholar and Assistant Director for the Choristers (children’s choir) at St. Anne’s Catholic Church where he specialized in the performance and history of both Gregorian Chant and sacred renaissance/baroque polyphony. Though primarily a church musician, Mr. May is also the former director of the San Diego Mannskor, Norwegian Male Chorus, whose primary repertoire stems from the Northern European and Baltic regions. Additionally, he has worked closely with many other professional organizations in San Diego including the Bach Collegium San Diego, Folklore Music Guild, and San Diego Pro Arte Voices. His credentials include two degrees—Bachelor of Music and Master of Music—from San Diego State University in Professional Studies and Choral Conducting respectively. Mr. May is also the current director for the choir at Cuyamaca Community College.

DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO

Office of the Bishop

My brothers and sisters in Christ:

I am writing to the entire Catholic community of San Diego and Imperial Counties this week to speak about the unspeakable — the sexual abuse of minors by priests which was detailed in the report of the grand jury in Pennsylvania. The individual stories of abuse that robbed the souls and violated the bodies of so many innocent children and young people during the past seventy years are shattering. For me as a bishop there is an additional level of shame, because in many instances, this abuse was magnified by the leadership of the Church that placed fear of scandal and the culture of clericalism ahead of the protection of young people.

The Pennsylvania grand jury report demands action and also points the way toward reform in the life of our Church. That report reveals that the imposition of the zero tolerance policy in 2002 substantially worked. It ushered in a period in which sexual abuse of minors by priests fell dramatically through consistent reporting to civil authorities, the creation of lay boards to evaluate the truth of allegations, and the education of children about abuse.

The additional reforms that we must undertake at this moment must be based on the principles that produced positive change after 2002 — an unswerving focus on protecting minors and vulnerable adults and a binding voice for the laity in determining whether an allegation is true. Any genuine reform must forcefully integrate these principles in a framework of accountability that applies to bishops in their personal lives and administrative actions.

I have already begun a process of consultation with priestly and lay leadership in the diocese of San Diego focusing on the steps we need to take locally and nationally to accomplish genuine reform. During the month of October, I will hold eight town hall meetings throughout the diocese. These meetings will focus on seeking input from people in the pews on the pathway to such reform, listening to those who have been victimized by clerical sexual abuse either directly or in their families, and praying for God's grace to be our only guide. I invite you to be part of this effort by your presence or your prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert W. McElroy
Bishop of San Diego

Calling All Angels!

For the 30th year, OLG parishioners and friends are invited to assist those in financial crisis during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. Opportunity to provide a holiday meal and/or gifts for an East County family or Senior in need will begin next week. If you are new to the parish and want more info about adopting a family or senior, call Lesley Bradley at (619) 878-0278. Angel Program volunteers will be at all of the Masses next weekend to answer questions and receive adoption requests. Forms will be in next week's bulletin.

One weekend... All the difference

Divorced, widowed, and separated persons can register now for a healing retreat scheduled for Oct 12-14 at the Prince of Peace Abbey in Oceanside. The weekend focuses on healing and moving beyond grief in a supportive and caring environment with others that have gone through or are going through the same experiences. If you are—or know someone who is—experiencing pain and grief, Beginning Experience can help.

To register, call Rose, (619) 504-4410 or Nish (Spanish), (330) 607-8774. For more info, see beginningexperience.org.
